6th SUNDAY OF EASTER - WE ARE CALLED TO LOVE

John 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples:

"As the Father loves me, so I also love you.

Remain in my love.

If you keep my commandments,

you will remain in my love,

just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love."

Love is the supreme calling of all Christians. No matter what resources or talents we have, we are all called to love. Not all of us can preach or teach. Not all of us can feed the poor or visit prisoners. Not all of us can travel to mission countries to convert souls. But all of us can and must love.

Love is the greatest witness of the Christian life. No matter how eloquent our preaching, no matter how logical our defense of our faith, no matter how selfless our service to others, it is the love we show in doing all this that speaks to the beauty and truth of the Christian message. It was Jesus' love that drew others to him, and it was the love that his first disciples showed for one another that built up the Church. In the same way, it will be our untiring, selfless love that will continue to reform, renew, and build up the Church in our day.

Imagine if all Christians really lived Jesus' commandment of love. Imagine a world in which the hungry are fed and in which no one would be poor or lonely. Imagine Christians armed with love bringing peace to the ongoing conflict in Syria. That is the world that God wants to build through us. -LPI
