ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE:

Poor Thomas! He made one remark and has been forever branded as "Doubting Thomas." But if he doubted, he also believed. He made what is certainly the most explicit statement of faith in the New Testament: "My Lord and My God!" and, in so expressing his faith, gave Christians a prayer that will be said till the end of time.

Real accomplishment lies not in doing many things but in doing the most important things. -Dynamic Catholic

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

St. Mark's Gospel, which we are reading this year, is known for its rich detail in describing Jesus' healing miracles. Today we have two stories which are provocative as well. They teach us how we relate to Christ in our own lives.

In the Gospel, Jesus responds to a synagogue official with a sick daughter and to a woman suffering from a hemorrhage. In both situations, Christ must deal with very human emotions and complications. The household of the synagogue official is demonstrative in its grieving over the girl's death. They even ridicule Jesus for his persistence in offering faith. The woman with the hemorrhage has her own long experience with frustration and failure; she fears to approach Jesus directly.

In both circumstances, Christ confronts the obstacles and breaks through with healing power. That is what his whole mission is meant to bring: a radical, transformation which overcomes sin, disease, even death. Let's allow the Lord to break into our lives!
