Since January, they have gifted $568.00 to this wonderful effort. We are proud of you and your sacrifices for those who have little.

Thank you for all that you have given and offered toward our continual call of Christian charity. God bless you.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" Ezekiel 2:2-3

God asks each of us to do some special work for Him. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. However, do we listen to God when He calls? Do we get up on our feet and use our talent to do the work He asks of us? Remember, God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called.

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

Today's second reading is perhaps some of the most personal testimony in all of the Christian Scriptures. St. Paul tells us how he had a "thorn in the flesh," something - and we don't know exactly what this was - which reminded Paul constantly of his need for God. Was it a physical ailment, an emotional difficulty, some sin or failing? Whatever it was, Paul didn't like it! He prayed that it might leave him.

God's answer to that prayer? Simply that God's grace would be enough to see Paul through. Paul learned from this personal experience how to accept this weakness, how to allow it to be a moment where the power of God would instead take over.

We should find this reading very comforting. None of us are saints, that's for sure. But if a real saint like Paul can "boast of his weakness," and can openly admit to it, and to how he begged God to take it away, then we find in Paul's story a way to deal with our own sinfulness, our own weakness.

Paul's experience gave him a way to look at all the things that happened to him - "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints," he says. So maybe there's hope for the rest of us as well, to discover a similar insight, with God's help.
