STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts."
Mark 6:8

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. When we really put God first in everything and put money and possessions second, we experience more freedom to joyfully serve God and others.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL:

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary in her role as patroness of the Carmelite Order. The first Carmelites were Christian hermits living on Mount Carmel near the Fountain of Elijah in northern Israel during the 12th century. By the 13th century they became known as “Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.”

Saint Teresa of Avila called Carmel “the Order of the Virgin.” Saint John of the Cross credited Mary with saving him from drowning as a child, leading him to Carmel, and helping him escape from prison.

Since the 15th century, popular devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel has centered on the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. The scapular reminds us of the gospel call to prayer and penance - a call that Mary models in a splendid way.

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

Being a prophet is not the “ideal job.” If you ever had any doubt, today’s first reading makes it clear that prophets usually didn’t seek out their role. Amos is confronted by the priest Amaziah at the shrine of Bethel in the land of Israel. The prophet has apparently offended both the king and the priests. His reply: He didn’t want the job in the first place! It was God who called him and sent him to speak a message—unpopular though that message might be.

While our Gospel for today doesn’t describe the unpleasant side of delivering God’s message, Jesus seems to anticipate that might happen, as he commissions his disciples for a preaching mission. If they aren’t welcomed, he says, they are to leave that place and shake its dust from their feet.

Christians today are likewise commissioned to take a message to the world. It seems these days that our message is more and more prophetic, more and more calculated to meet with rejection, in a world that finds our values alien.

We may not want the job, but it’s ours. Our great and holy calling is outlined by Paul in the second reading. He says that God’s choice of each of us comes with the power of the Spirit, with whom we are sealed. May we be courageous in our prophetic role.
