LORETO HOUSE

Loreto House, one of the charities/ministries that our parishes support, needs diapers. Please read Randy Bollig's post below on how you can help:

Wow! Exciting times at Loreto House. We filled almost every available spot in the Diaper Day Event, but you can still call and get one of the few remaining spots.

Today we have 18 appointments scheduled and our staff has prepared our client files for their visit. We serve our guests with "Radical Hospitality" and Laurie always has special handmade crafts and sweets for the women.

We also recently purchased some improved fetal models that represent the beauty of the womb. It is a powerful visual aid to show an abortion minded woman how a representation of the life growing within her.

We have an urgent need for diapers for the Diaper Day event on July 30. Please order from Amazon and ship directly to Loreto House. We need Pull-Ups plus all other sizes, except size 2. Please deliver to Loreto House, 1100 N. Bonnie Brae St. Denton, TX 76201

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

Adventure writer Jon Krakauer wrote Into Thin Air, a first-person account of the 1996 disaster on Mt. Everest, when eight people lost their lives in one day. Fierce storms, exhaustion and human limitations in Everest’s unforgiving environment led to the tragedy. In his gripping account, Krakauer describes how the crucial relationship between guide and client might mean the difference between life and death.

Even when not life-threatening, a mountain climb challenges a person emotionally, spiritually, as well as physically.

Today’s Gospel invites us into another challenging environment, a desert wilderness, with Jesus as our shepherd and guide. We’re invited, along with his disciples to “come and rest.”

Summer is a time when we seek out places of rest and leisure with our families, to “re-charge” and get new energy for our lives.

Liturgically, we’ll do something similar, starting next week. We’ll read from the Gospel of John for five weeks, from the section known as the “Bread of Life Discourse.” It shows Jesus as both our shepherd-guide, and our source of nourishment. Our Scriptures will help us understand better how he does this in the Eucharist. Along with leisurely reflection, we’ll also be challenged: Can we take the responsibility ourselves, to feed Christ’s people?
