STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

Genesis 2:19

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, we are all called to be generous with all our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts: our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

OCTOBER 18TH - FEAST OF ST. LUKE, EVANGELIST

Believed to have been a native of Antioch and a physician by training, Luke authored the Gospel that bears his name as well as the Acts of the Apostles. Luke accompanied Paul in his journeys and likely suffered martyrdom in Boeotia. Of all the Evangelists, he seemed most concerned to show Jesus at prayer. It is fitting, therefore, that the Church's prayer, the Liturgy of the Hours, draws mainly from Luke.

Luke wrote as a Gentile for Gentile Christians. There is a warmth to Luke's writing that sets it apart from that of the other synoptic Gospels, and yet it beautifully complements those works. The treasure of the Scriptures is a true gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church.

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the spring of 2003, a feature-length film appeared in theaters, telling the true story of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, who defied Hitler and gave witness to the Gospel in the face of the Nazi tyranny. One of Bonhoeffer's best-known books is The Cost of Discipleship. Its very title comes to mind as we read today's Gospel.

Here, Jesus teaches his disciples that he will suffer and die, but the disciples are not only baffled by what the Lord is telling them; they're too busy arguing over who among them is the greatest!

Jesus must remind them once again that the Kingdom demands a lot of the disciple. True greatness lies in service. True disciples take the side of those who are powerless, like the little child Jesus embraces in the story.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer lived at a time when many religious people chose to ignore a great evil, or worse—collaborate with it. Bonhoeffer wrote, taught, and eventually gave his life in a Nazi prison, to witness to what the Gospel demands: We must speak for the voiceless, even if our service costs us our own lives.

Today's Christians may not face evil on such a global scale, but they nevertheless have lots of opportunities for true Christian witness. May Christ give us strength to consider, and to pay, the cost of discipleship.

Franciscan Media

Are you singing for joy filled with God's love or are you struggling to love God and one another? Jesus reminds us that with God all things are possible. God must be part of the equation of our lives and our marriages. Allow God to transform your marriage relationship by gaining the tools to truly love your spouse and receive the joy that it can bring.

The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are Oct. 26-28, 2018, and Jan. 25-27, 2019.
