Mar. 28	St. Tutilo

THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD: It was at the hour of midnight, when the most holy Virgin was alone and absorbed in prayer, that the Archangel Gabriel appeared before her, and asked her, in the name of the blessed Trinity, to consent to become the Mother of God. Mary bows down and says to the heavenly messenger: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord: be it done to me according to thy word." This feast celebrates the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Trinity and the salvation of all mankind.

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

It is true the Lenten fasting rules are not what they were in the memory and experience of many older Catholics. The emphasis today in our Lenten observance has shifted somewhat. We stress the "baptismal" character of Lent. It is a time when we re-affirm our Christian identity, and support those preparing for Baptism. Repentance is still a Lenten focus, and today those two themes come together in our Scriptures.

Take a cue from St. Paul, who creatively retells the story of the Israelites in the desert, to remind the Corinthians that being baptized means a life of repentance. A Christian is to live differently, to constantly have a spirit of conversion.

It is a theme Jesus picks up in the Gospel, correcting popular notions about why bad things happen to good people. All of us, Jesus says, must be "reform-minded." God doesn't single out anyone by sending tragedies or natural disasters. We all have opportunities - not unlimited, of course - but opportunities nonetheless, to turn from sin and accept God's love. It is what Baptism commits us to do.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

"He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'"
Luke 13:7

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts and return with increase.
