POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION: APRIL

Universal: Doctors and their Collaborators in War-torn Areas

For doctors and their humanitarian collaborators in war-torn areas who risk their lives to save the lives of others.

5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

It all depends on how you look at it.

The knowledge and perspective we bring to any experience determines how we feel about that experience. For example, those old enough to remember the postwar era might recall scenes of big, modern factories belching smoke hailed as a sign of prosperity. Now, we may look at such scenes with a sensitivity to environmental issues; our perspective is different. It all depends on how you look at it.

This Sunday's Scriptures invite a similar change of perspective: Isaiah urges the people to forget about the Exodus event, the passage through the Red Sea. Instead, the people are to take notice that God is doing something new. Paul tells the Philippians how knowing Christ has caused him to consider everything else as "rubbish." And Jesus himself turns accusation into forgiveness with a simple phrase inviting the scribes and Pharisees to look at a sinner from the perspective of their own sinfulness.

Lent is a time to alter our way of looking at ourselves and our world. What surprises await us this week, as we re-orient ourselves, based on our coming to know Christ.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

"For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..."
Philippians 3:8

The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Sharing all of our gifts, our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support Church needs helps us keep God first in everything. It keeps us from putting other gods before God. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not for our own honor.
