The Knights of Columbus will grill the burgers and hot dogs and cook a big pot of beans. Parishioners are asked to bring a side dish to share. SPRING SHOWERS : We consider all rain a blessing in our part of Texas and are thankful for the abundance of spring showers. The frequent rains have challenged our lawn maintenance team, but their dedication is apparent in our beautiful church grounds. Many thanks to our Holy Mowers!

MOST HOLY TRINITY

We are told that the great Saint Augustine was once walking along the seashore trying to figure out the mystery of the Trinity. He came upon a child filling a hole with bucket after bucket of water from the ocean. "You can't empty the whole ocean into that hole," the saint laughed. Looking at the learned Augustine the child replied, "And neither can you ever completely understand the mystery of the Trinity."

Today's feast invites us to reflect on one of the most profound truths of our faith - that God is three and one. Three equal persons - one God. If even Saint Augustine could not exhaust that mystery in thousands of words, how are we to understand?

Perhaps we can allow our Sunday Gospel to instruct us: Jesus tells us that the Holy Spirit will teach us what we need to know. The Spirit, Jesus says, works in union with Jesus and with the Father. These words come from Jesus' discourse at the Last Supper, when the disciples were troubled about their future. The Lord wanted to console them, that he and the Father would remain present to them through the working of the Spirit. There is consolation in those words for us as well, as we face the fears and questions of our time in the Church and in the world.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..."
John 16:13

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us know and live the truth. To prepare ourselves, we need to open our hearts to receive this gift before we can give it. Develop a daily prayer routine. Talk and listen to the Holy Spirit. This is best done in silence, when we can hear His response.
