STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:
“They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.” John 16:13
 The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when we share what we have, even if it doesn’t seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! God blesses all the gifts we offer and makes them wondrous.

CORPUS CHRISTI

There is a part of the Mass which gets the least emphasis in our Sunday celebration. It comes at the very end of Mass, as the priest blesses the assembly and dismisses it. This short ceremony is really a “commissioning.” We are being sent out into the world, to put the whole meaning of the Sunday Eucharist into practical action in our lives.

Today’s feast, which commemorates Christ’s gift of himself in the Eucharist, has two Scripture selections which help us appreciate this “under-emphasized” part of the Mass. Listen to Saint Paul describe to the Corinthians how Jesus blessed and broke bread at the Last Supper, and then hear Luke’s Gospel tell the story of Jesus feeding the crowd. The Gospel speaks of “blessing and breaking” the loaves as well.

Could Luke have meant us to hear this story of Jesus feeding the hungry, and intended us to think about the meaning of Eucharist as well? How is Jesus the food that feeds our deepest hungers? And could that connection teach us what we are commissioned to do at every Eucharist: to take its power into everyday life, where we are called to feed others with both physical and spiritual food? Those are good questions to think about as we gather for Eucharist.
