Daily and Sunday Masses are still as scheduled and will be offered on-site but without an active participating congregation. Each Mass will be live-streamed on our FaceBook pages at their original time schedule.

You can make an act of spiritual communion at home when attending Mass via livestream. Father Khoi will lead the prayer when it comes time for communion.

You can also watch and attend Mass on EWTN, using our diocesan website, or simply pray the Rosary for those who are not well and affected by this pandemic. Your Sunday obligation will be lifted/dispensed if you cannot make it to Mass.

Pastoral cares of the sick and homebound are still our top priority, so please call the Parish Office if you need assistance.

All communal reconciliation/penance services had been canceled throughout the Diocese for the Lenten Season, including the scheduled service on March 26 for the three parishes.

If you need reconciliation, please call the Parish Office and speak with Father Khoi for an appointment.

If you are traveling or cannot join us for Mass but still want to support St. Jude Thaddeus Parish, you can now securely make your stewardship contribution with Tithe.ly, an online giving platform for many churches. This service uses bank-grade encryption to protect your private information, and all your contributions are notified to the Parish Office for proper recording.

You can go to <https://tithe.ly/give?c=1132679> or click on the green “GIVE” button on our parish’s website at www.stjudeburkburnett.org.

You have an option of what to use (credit card or bank information), how often (one-time gift, weekly/monthly, etc.), and where you choose to contribute (stewardship, maintenance fund, outreach supports, etc.).

For Christ the King and St. Paul parishioners as well as for others who do not want to use the online giving option, you are still able to make your stewardship contributions via your Bank's BillPay option or using postal mail.

If you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office at 940-569-1222 for assistance. Thank you for your generosity and consideration.
