VOLUNTEER NEEDED: St. Jude Thaddeus is looking for a volunteer to help keep the parish rectory clean by performing housekeeping chores, such as sweeping, mopping, dusting, wiping surfaces, and cleaning the kitchen and bathrooms once a week.

GRACE MINISTRIES MOST NEEDED ITEMS:

- Jiffy Cornbread Mix
- Saltine Crackers
- Spam/Treat
- Jelly

SOLIDARITY: We are one human family, whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers' and sisters' keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Blessed Pope Paul VI taught that "if you want peace, work for justice." The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

RCIA: A JOURNEY OF FAITH: Since Jesus invited His first followers to "Come, follow me," the image of the journey has been used to describe Christian discipleship. For each of us, faith is a journey marked with moments of conversion along the way. We move from unbelief to initial faith, from sin to repentance, from painful isolation to the joyful experience of a loving community, from fear to love.

Faith, conversion, repentance, celebration, and community are the five essential elements in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). RCIA provides a setting where the journey of faith and moments of conversion can be celebrated within the local Church community. The purpose of RCIA is literally "the making of Christians," for as Tertullian in the 4th century wrote, "Christians are made, not born."

Join us on the journey. This invitation is extended to:

- anyone who has never been baptized
- anyone who is affiliated with any church and has a desire to be a member of a church community
- anyone who has been baptized in another denomination but is interested in learning about the Catholic faith
- any non-active Catholic who has been away from the Church and would like to get re-acquainted
- any adult Catholic who would like to learn more about the Church and mature in their faith

If you would like to join us or receive more information, please contact Deacon Dave at 569-1222.

NEW BULLETIN IN THE WORKS:

We are contracting with Diocesan to help us create a new full-color bulletin for our parishes. The Diocesan will be at St. Jude Thaddeus the week of August 16th – 20th, and you may receive a call from them, asking for your support by placing a memorial ad in the bulletin. Thank you in advance to all who can help, and please remember, you are under no obligation to do so, and can respectfully decline.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

"Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!" 1 Kings 19:7

God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need His help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist, we join our sacrifice with the sacrifice of the Holy Mass, and receive the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

ASK FATHER!

Have a question for Father? Liturgical, Theological, Spiritual, Philosophical, Scriptural, or Canonical...all are on the table. Just send him an email. Once a week, he will pick a question to answer here in the bulletin.

This Week's Question: Why do you pause for so long right between saying 'Let Us Pray' and the opening prayer?

Father Says: The 'opening prayer' is called the Collect (KOL-ect). In the Collect, the priest calls upon the gathered people to pray, and in that period of silence, allows them to become aware they are in God's presence, for God speaks in silence. You are also encouraged to use this period of silence to offer up your own personal intention for that Holy Mass. By doing this, the priest 'collects' the prayers and intentions of all those gathered, and joins them to the Collect prayer itself. In this manner, all the people make these prayers their own, and together offer them to the Father, by acclaiming Amen.

I pause to allow you time to offer your intention, be it for yourself, a loved one, the community, our country, or whatever you like. Be blessed!

DIVINE WORD MISSIONARIES: Fr. Justin Arockiasamy will be with us on the weekend of August 21-22 to speak about the many ministries of his religious community, Divine Word Missionaries. Serving in 84 countries, they build chapels, celebrate the sacraments, and spread the Word of God in remote mission areas. To meet some of the people they help, please read the stories at missionimpact.svdmissions.org/mission-update. Over 6,000 missionaries travel to the far corners of the world building hospitals, educating the poor, and providing drinkable water, food, and shelter. These priests and Brothers help people neglected by society to build a better future. They also foster vibrant Catholic communities of service and faith around the world. This Mission Appeal is part of the Missionary Cooperative Program of our Diocese. Please be generous with your prayers, and contribute to the second collection to encourage the vital work of Divine Word Missionaries. <https://missionimpact.svdmissions.org/mission-update>

CELEBRATE THIS WEEK

PHONE SYSTEM AND ANSWERING SERVICE: We have migrated to a new phone system, serving the Tri-Parish family. Part of the new system is an after-hours answering service, so Father Moreno can be contacted in the event of a sacramental emergency.

While we work out any oddities in the programming, we ask that you please let us know (by email) if you encounter anything that doesn't seem to work correctly when calling into the parish office or using the answering service. Please send us an email at stjudeburkburnett@gmail.com.
