ST. MATTHIAS, APOSTLE – Feast day May 14th – The only mention of St. Matthias is in the Acts of the Apostles. The passage we read tells us how he came to be numbered among the apostles (Acts 1:15-26). Determined by lot, “the choice fell to Matthias, who was added to the eleven apostles.” St. Matthias mission was to give witness to the resurrection of Jesus. Legend says that Matthias preached in Judea, Cappadocia (present day Turkey) and on the shores of the Caspian Sea, where he was martyred.

ST. ISIDORE – Feast Day May 15th – Isidore “the farmer” was born in Madrid, Spain, to a family of poor farm laborers. He worked throughout his life on the farm of a wealthy landowner. His life and labor were shared with his wife, also a saint, Maria de le Cabeza. Both Isidore and Maria were humble, simple, noted, too for his kindness to animals. He was canonized in 1622. Isidore and his saintly wife teach us that sanctity is not a matter of status, and that it is not incompatible with physical labor. After his death his remains were transferred to a beautiful shrine (1170) and his fame spread. He is a patron of farmers and rural communities and of the city of Madrid. May we thank God for all the farmers, men and women, who work so hard that we may eat.

A HAPPY & BLESSED MOTHER'S DAY TO ALL OUR MOTHERS!
