SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND – will be taken for church maintenance.

FATHER'S DAY NOVENA MASSES – On Father's Day, June 16th, all our Masses will be offered for our fathers living and deceased. Intention envelopes and cards to send to the living fathers are available after all the masses this weekend and next weekend. All names will be placed on the altar for all the Masses. A $5.00 offering is asked for each name.

STATUE – A number of parishioners have requested a possible shrine to Padre Pio, one of the great saints of our modern day. I too, would be happy to honor him. We already have a ready-made alcove for the statue in the window by the confessional. A statue would fit nicely on the shelf of the window which lights up on the inside from the confessional. In order for the whole parish to have an opportunity to contribute, whenever we have a free 2nd collection, it will be used for this purpose. We will begin next weekend.

CHURCH RESTROOM – We are having a serious problem with keeping the church rest room clean. I can't even begin to tell you what we have had to deal with. On Sundays we simply don't have maintenance available. Therefore, it will be locked, only opened on special request and under supervision. As always, a few, make it bad for everyone.

WARM WEATHER – Is upon us. As St. Timothy reminds us (Timothy 2:9-10), let us remember to dress appropriately and reverently during the summer months when visiting the house of God.

OFFERTORY PROCESSION – Please notify an usher if the Mass you are attending is in memory of a family member or friend, and you would like to bring the gifts to the altar at the offertory procession. It would be rewarding for you to participate in the Mass remembering your family member or friend.

STS. MARCELLINUS AND PETER – Feast day is Sunday, June 2nd – An indication of the esteem in which the fourth century martyrs, Marcellinus and Peter, are held in the Roman Church is the fact that they are mentioned in Eucharistic Prayer I, the Roman Canon. Marcellinus was a priest, and Peter an exorcist. They were beheaded in the first years of the fourth century, probably in 303, for making converts to Christianity. Their importance to the Roman community of that time is indicated by the fact that their tomb was inscribed by Pope Damasus and a church was built in their honor by Constantine.

ST. BONIFACE, BISHOP, MARTYR – Feast day is Wednesday, June 5th – An Angle-Saxon monk, Boniface was a missionary to neglected Christian communities and to heathens. He labored in what is now the Netherlands, the Rhineland and Bavaria in present day West Germany, and in the neighboring areas of France. His papal commission was to Germany, and he is today honored as the apostle of Germany. Boniface was entrusted with broad authority for evangelizing and organizing the Church in the areas in which he and his monks worked. He established the foundations of a strong faith by preaching and by establishing monasteries which greatly aided in the structuring of the German Church. Like many early missionaries to heathen tribes, Boniface's life and efforts were rewarded with the martyr's crown at the hands of marauding pagans.
