ST. PIUS X, POPE – Feast day, Wednesday, August 21st – Giuseppe Sarto (1835-1914) was born to poor parents. He entered the seminary at age 15 and was ordained in 1858 at age 23. For seventeen years he was a parish priest, then chancellor of his diocese. Appointed Bishop of Mantua in 1884, he endeared himself to his people by his gentleness and warmth as he went about renewing his diocese. Ten years later he was named Cardinal and Patriarch of Venice, and in 1903 was chosen to be Pope. It was a time that called for strength in leadership in the Church and this humble saint was equal to the challenge. He met the needs of the Church and the needs in society. Primarily he turned to the spiritual needs of the church and is remembered as the pope who encouraged frequent reception of Holy Communion, especially by children, and he urged that they receive this wonderful sacrament as early as possible. The years of the pontificate of Pope St. Pius X were difficult, but he untiringly gave of himself. He was a gentle and sensitive shepherd after the model of Jesus the Good Shepherd. An historian wrote of him: he was “a man of God who knew of the unhappiness of the world and the hardships of life, and in the greatness of his heart wanted to comfort everyone.”

ST. ROSE OF LIMA – Feast day, Friday, August 23rd – She was born in Lima, Peru of Spanish parents, her life was one of penance and prayer. Reputedly a very beautiful young woman, she resisted the efforts of her parents to have her marry. Imprudently, perhaps, she disfigured herself to appear unattractive. Rose’s parents refused to allow her to enter religious life, and she obeyed them. But then she chose to live as a recluse in a garden shack practicing great austerity and spending long hours daily in prayer. She did become a member of the Third Order of St. Dominic. By today’s standards, and very probably by those of her day, the sanity of St. Rose of Lima (1586-1617) would have been questioned. At least her behavior was judged to be strange, because it made other people uncomfortable. The saints can do that to us, but Rose was at peace with God, regardless.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY!

Murmur not at the ills you may suffer, but rather thank God for the many mercies and blessings you have received at His hands.
