ST. AUGUSTINE, BISHOP & DOCTOR – Feast day, Wednesday, August 28 – He was born in 354 in Numidia, probably African by race as well as by birth, he was thoroughly Roman “by language, culture and persuasion.” He received a Christian education from his mother, Monica, but did not receive baptism. At age 19 he abandoned Christianity and was even anti-Catholic for a time. He became a teacher of grammar and rhetoric, and for this reason moved to Rome and eventually to Milan. His conversion to Christianity was a long odyssey, and a time of true intellectual searching. The final spark was supplied by the preaching of St. Ambrose, the bishop of Milan. Throughout it all Monica prayed continuously. The final struggle was the choice of how to best live the Christian ideal of wisdom. By the latter part of the year 384 he sought instruction from St. Ambrose and the following Easter was baptized. By then he was 33 years old and a short time later his mother (Monica) died, her prayers answered. Augustine took up monastic life, and decided to return to Hippo, Africa. There he accepted ordination to the priesthood at the age of 36. He continued his monastic life while studying theology and beginning his apostolate of preaching. Five years later he became the bishop of Hippo

THE BEHEADING OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST – St. John boldly denounced the adulterous marriage of Herod to his brother’s wife, Herodias, and as a result was thrown into prison. On the anniversary of Herod’s birth, a feast was given in which Salome, the daughter of Herodias, pleased him exceedingly by a graceful dance. Herod swore he would grant whatever she asked. Salome consulted her mother, who advised her to request the head of St. John. An officer was dispatched to the prison and St. John was beheaded to satisfy the revenge of a voluptuous woman.
