THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Jonah set out for Nineveh as God asked and told the people that their city would be destroyed in forty days. The people believed him and repented from their evil ways. God did not destroy their city, showing his mercy for those who see the evil of their ways and correct it.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Paul advises the Corinthians that their world is changing, so they should not take their daily trials too seriously. We should remember that the problems of everyday living will not last forever, but the eternal life God promises us will.

Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Jesus observes Simon and Andrew where they are fishing and tells them to come with him and become "fishers of men." They abandon their nets without hesitation to follow him. Next he calls James and his brother John, who also leave what they are doing and follow him without question.

On behalf of Father Gio, Deacons Harry & Hank and myself, we would like to offer our sincerest thanks to all our St. Clement's parishioners for their most generous support of our Christmas Giving Tree again this year.

Once again you opened your hearts and shared the spirit of Christmas with those most in need.

Thanks to your goodness and love, you made Christmas happen for so many who would have done without, were it not for your care and concern.

The many, many families who benefited from your very generous gifts also thank you. God bless you. And very best wishes for a blessed and peaceful New Year!

Irene Byrne
