Opening Prayer

May your grace, O Lord, we pray,
at all times go before us and follow after
and make us always determined to carry out good works.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflecting on Living the Gospel

Expressing gratitude is essential for positive, healthy relationships. Many of the Psalms are prayers of gratitude. And the word "Eucharist" means "thanksgiving," essentially giving gratitude. A pithy rhyme sums it up best in exhorting us to cultivate an "attitude of gratitude."

Today Luke reminds us that Jesus is continuing his long journey to Jerusalem, now through Samaria and Galilee. We recall that Jesus is a Galilean for whom the Samaritans were considered foreigners. Today a Samaritan leper, along with nine other lepers, interacts with Jesus. Of course, the Samaritan was the only one of the ten who, upon being healed, went back to thank Jesus. Jesus himself seems to be surprised that no one but the foreigner, the Samaritan, expressed gratitude. Even Jesus could be surprised. And even Jesus appreciated a word of thanks. Then, the Samaritan is sent on his way with the knowledge that his faith saved him.

Among many lessons we learn in this short story is the power and importance of saying thank you, as well as the fact that salvation is extended even to the foreigner. We try to instill an "attitude of gratitude" in children, when we teach them to write thank you notes after birthday parties, graduations, and even weddings. An expression of gratitude comes from a place in the heart that recognizes the kindness done for another and acknowledges it, not because it's required, but because it is an authentic expression of one's thoughts and feelings. Though we instill this lesson in children, we hope it becomes internalized by the time they grow to adulthood. When it's not internalized it can be a bit surprising, as Jesus himself expresses: "Ten were cleansed, were they not? / Where are the other nine?" Today let's make a point to express thanks to someone, cultivating an "attitude of gratitude."

Closing Prayer

Jesus! Master! Have pity on us! We echo the cries of the lepers for we are spiritual lepers ourselves. We seek and require your pity. We call upon you with cries of mercy. Look to us with compassion, granting your mercy to us. When, upon receiving this free gift from you, we will be filled with gratitude, sharing the abundant joy that can only be had by knowing you. We ask this in your name. Amen.

For Reflection:

• How do you practice an "attitude of gratitude" in your daily life?

Suggestions for group and individual use:

1. Pray aloud the "Opening Prayer" (in The Roman Missal called the "collect").
2. One person read aloud the gospel.
3. Each read prayerfully "Reflecting on Living the Gospel" and spend some time in personal prayer.
4. Share together responses to "For Reflection."
5. Pray the "Closing Prayer."

Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee.

As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him.

They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying,
"Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!"

And when he saw them, he said,
"Go show yourselves to the priests."

As they were going they were cleansed.
And one of them, realizing he had been healed,

returned, glorifying God in a loud voice;
and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him.

He was a Samaritan.

Jesus said in reply,
"Ten were cleansed, were they not?
Where are the other nine?
Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"
Then he said to him, "Stand up and go;
your faith has saved you."
