Demographics in the Midwest are changing. The Catholic population is moving south. According to the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate, the number of Catholic parishes in Ohio decreased by 171 from 1971 to 2018 while the number of Catholic parishes in Florida, for example, increased by 165 over the same time span.

Whatever you ask for in prayer and do so in faith, you will receive.

~Mt 21:22

Reflection. A great faith merits great graces from the Lord.

The more things your trust dares to ask of the Lord, the more you will receive.

~St Bernard

Prayer. Lord Jesus, grant me a strong faith and an unwavering trust in You.

Help me especially in times of trial when everything appears bleak. You seem far way, and I am afraid.

HOLY WATER A SACRAMENTAL

The Church considers holy water to be a sacramental, a sacred sign that bears a resemblance to the sacraments. It is closely connected to baptism, among other sacraments, and is symbolic of Christ, who called himself "living water" and who is the font of eternal life. It reminds us, too, of Christ, the saving victim from whose side blood and water flowed, an allusion to the Church and the sacraments.

IN THE HOME

Once blessed, the water is available in fonts in churches. The faithful are welcome to fill a small bottle or another receptacle to take the water home. The water can be placed in a font within the home, often hung on the wall near a doorway, or it may remain in the bottle. Holy water can be used for blessing oneself or for parents to bless their children. It serves as a tangible sign of Christ and a reminder of the rites of the Church that use water, including baptism and Eucharist.

Dream as if you'll live forever. Live as if you'll die today.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel:

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me: Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day. Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you. But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD! And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them.
