OF INTEREST TO BOTH PARISHES

From Msgr. Seifried....

This weekend of 15-16 June, we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity, three persons in one God. This is most challenging to understand and we really cannot, it is a mystery. We can attempt to get some meaning from this doctrine of faith by knowing from the Old Testament, God the Father was the creator of the world. Out of so much love for others, His son is a result of that love and was sent to be with us for a limited time in His human nature, New Testament. Then out of the great love between the Father and the Son, came the Holy Spirit and He was sent to reside in each of us, we thus being Temples of the Holy Spirit. This is a very imperfect explanation of the Trinity. Hopefully, it may cause us to think and appreciate the tremendous love and care God has for each one of us.

This weekend, we also celebrate Father's Day. Everyday is truly father's day to provide for his family, to shoulder the responsibility, along with his wife, to care, to love, to be totally dedicated to them. We know every father wants the best for his family. Frequently, he may not be very expressive in his emotional response to them but we know he is quietly present and truly has a heart of gold. We pray God's most choicest blessings upon all fathers, living and deceased, as they care and love their family.

We have had several people ask again for Fr. Jeff's address so they can send him cards. It is: Fr. Jeff Schleisman, 26528 115th Street, Lake City, IA 51449. Continued prayers for positive results at Mayo the end of the month!

The Feast Days of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary are quickly approaching (June 28th and 29th). You are invited to join others for Mass in the Chapel of Divine Mercy at Trinity Heights on Friday, June 28th at 11:30 to give praise and thanksgiving to the Sacred Heart. The summer rosary at 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 29th will be a prayed with the mysteries of the Seven Sorrows of Mary. All are invited to attend. While you are onsite, consider a prayerful walk on the grounds and enjoy the beautiful 30-foot statue of Mary Queen of Peace and the 33-foot statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Proud To Be Catholic is the theme for the Summer Series at Trinity Heights. Please mark your calendars for the series on consecutive Wednesday evenings in July after the 7:00 rosary at the Mound of Mary. All talks will be held in the Marian Center. There is no charge. Bring the whole family! The first speaker for the series will be Father David Hemann on July 10th. Father Shane Deman will present on July 17th. Come find out who has inspired so many to be PROUD to be a Catholic.
