SAFETY ON THE INTERNET AND SOCIAL MEDIA FOR OUR FAMILIES

The internet and other social media platforms are all marvelous tools with great benefits but keep in mind some practical tips especially for the safety of our children:

- Personal Information: Never give out identifying information, home address, phone number, Social Security number or school name in a public message, such as the familiar chat rooms or bulletin boards. Be sure you and your children know and trust the other party before giving ANY PERSONAL DATA. Be extra careful about giving age, marital status or financial situation. Get to know the Internet Service Provider your child uses! If you don't know how to log on, have your child show you. Find out if parents can block out objectionable materials and please do that. If you can't do that, that is be a big red flag about using that service provider.
- Never allow a child to meet face-to-face with a computer friend for the first time unless there is strict parental supervision! If there is a meeting, it must be in a public place and be sure to accompany your child. Remember, people online are not always who they claim to be! It is very easy for people to misrepresent themselves. Someone indicating "she" is a "12 year old girl" could instead be a "40 year old man".
- Never respond to messages or bulletin board items that are suggestive, obscene, threatening or make you feel uncomfortable. Strongly encourage your child to tell you if they receive such a message. If you or your child receives a harassing or sexual message, contact and forward it to your service provider. And call the police
- If you become aware of transmission, use or viewing of child pornography while online, report it immediately to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children by calling 1-800-843-5678. Also notify your online service and call the police. This may well involve criminal behavior as well as immoral behavior.
- Everything you read online is not always be true. If an offer is "too good to be true", it usually is. Be careful of an offer or of someone coming into your home.
- Set reasonable guidelines for computer use, cell phone and smart phone use with your children! If a child or teenager spends an excessive amount of time texting, especially late at night, there may be cause for concern. Be sure to make this a family activity! Keep the computer in a family room rather than the child's bedroom. Get to know your child's "online friends" just like you get to know their other friends.

I hope these suggestions, developed by experts, may help our parents, grandparents and guardians. Parents, grandparents and guardians have awesome responsibilities and challenges. We pray for you every day.

God Bless, Fr. Herb

WORDS OF TITHING:

From the pastor: A little boy received a snack to enjoy while watching TV with his Dad before going to bed. He climbed on the sofa and showed his Dad his snack, a beautiful pear, and said, "Daddy, would you like the first bite of my pear?" He was not only very generous; he practiced the first rule of Tithing – offering the first 'bite' of our most precious fruit to God for all He gives us. Do I always offer the first 'bite' to God? or the second or the third?

Words on tithing from the Pews: In Tithing, we humbly recognize that we are creatures and our basic poverty before our God. As Saint Augustine says so neatly, "Out of God's gifts, then, we make gifts to God and He receives from us what He gave us.

ADORATION CHAPEL

The kneeler in the Adoration Chapel is very special because it was used by New Jersey’s own Blessed Miriam Teresa. We will continue to pray for her canonization. Our Adoration Chapel is a perfect home for her kneeler because of Blessed Miriam Teresa’s great devotion to our Lord’s presence in the Blessed Sacrament. We respectfully ask that you do not use or move the kneeler. It is old and somewhat fragile. Thank you.

GOOD SAMARITANS – EVA’S VILLAGE

SATURDAY, AUGUST 12TH

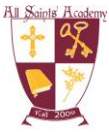

Our summer outreach to others has been very busy. The needs of the poor take no vacation. As always, you have been most generous in your monetary and food donations in June and July for our Food Pantry. Thank you!

We complete our summer outreach service projects by caring for our needy brothers and sisters at Eva’s Village in Paterson. August is Saint Peter’s month to prepare dinner and serve approximately 200 guests, many of whom are homeless. The Good Samaritans will be available the next two weekends in the Narthex to invite you to sign-up to cook and/or donate food. Much has been asked of you over the last two months, but we know your response to the Lord’s call to help the poor has always been a thunderous, “YES”.

May our God bless you and your family for your generosity, because as you look into the faces of the poor, you see Him!

WHEELCHAIR AVAILABLE

A parishioner has a Companion Wheelchair they would like to donate to someone in need. Please call the Rectory at 973-334-2090.

ALL SAINTS ACADEMY CORNER ASA – A Model Early Childhood Center

Currently Accepting Enrollments for September 2017. All Saints Academy hosts an extensive Early childhood Center that is considered a model setting for young children of the Parsippany area. It includes a Pre-School level for three-year old children, a Pre-Kindergarten program for four-year old children and a full day Kindergarten. The faith-filled environment provides young children with a nurturing setting for a “first school experience.” The early childhood curriculum is developmentally driven, capturing the essence of each child through the integration of spiritual, physical, intellectual and social-emotional components.

The teaching team has developed a highly enriched language and mathematics program based on the combination play and pre-academic skills. All early childhood instruction is also infused with the tenets of STEM education. Vibrant teaching and genuine learning occurs through the interweaving of science, technology, engineering and math in daily classroom lessons. Full day and half day sessions are available in both the Pre-School and Pre-Kindergarten levels. After School care until 6pm is also available for students of the Early Childhood Center.

Please contact All Saints Academy’s principal, Mrs. Judy Berg, at 973-334-4704 for information about registering your child in this fine program for September. Find us on Facebook: www.allsaintspar.org

NOVENA PRAYER TO SAINTS ANNE & JOACHIM

Good parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, grandparents of our Savior, Jesus Christ, when life seems barren, help us to trust in God’s mercy. When we are confused, help us to find the way to God. When we are lost in the desert, lead us to those who God has called us to love. When our marriage seems lifeless, show us the eternal youth of the Lord. When we are selfish, teach us to cling only to that which lasts. When we are afraid, help us to trust in God. When we are ashamed, remind us that we are God’s children. When we sin, lead us to do God’s will. You who know Gods will for husband and wife, help us to live chastely. You who know God’s will for the family, keep all families close to you. You who suffered without children, intercede for all infertile couples. You who trusted in God’s will, help us to respect God’s gift of fertility. You who gave birth to the Blessed Mother, inspire couples to be co-creators with God. You who taught the Mother of God, teach us to nurture children in holy instruction. You whose hearts trusted in God, hear our prayers for (state your request). Pray with us for the ministry of Catholic family life. Pray with us for the ministry of Natural Family Planning. Pray with us for all who give their time, talent and treasure to this good work.

Pray one Hail Mary, one Our Father and one Glory be.

God of our fathers, you gave Saints Anne and Joachim the privilege of being the parents of Mary, the mother of your incarnate Son. May their prayers help us to attain the salvation you have promised to your people. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mensaje del párroco:

Seguridad en el internet y los medios de comunicación para nuestras familias

El internet y otras plataformas de medios sociales son todas herramientas maravillosas, con grandes beneficios, pero tenga en cuenta algunos consejos prácticos especialmente para la seguridad de nuestros hijos:

- Información personal: Nunca dé su información de identificación, domicilio, número de teléfono, número de seguro social o el nombre de la escuela en un mensaje público, las salas de chat o tabloneros de anuncios. Asegúrese de que usted y sus hijos conozcan y confíen en la otra parte antes de dar NINGÚN DATO PERSONAL. Sea extremadamente cuidadoso en dar la edad, estado civil o su situación financiera. ¡Conozca el proveedor de servicios de internet que utiliza su hijo! Si usted no sabe cómo conectarse, haga que su hijo le enseñe. Averigüe si los padres pueden bloquear materiales cuestionables y por favor hágalo. Si los padres no pueden hacer eso, entonces es una gran bandera roja de que no debe usar ese proveedor de servicio.
- ¡Nunca permita que un niño se encuentre cara a cara con un usuario de la computadora, a menos que sea bajo la supervisión estricta de un adulto! Si hay una reunión, tiene que ser en un lugar público y asegúrese de acompañar a su hijo. ¡Recuerde, que la gente en línea pueden no ser quienes dicen ser! Es bien fácil que la gente se esconda detrás de otra apariencia. Alguien que indica que "ella" es una "niña de 12 años", podría ser un "hombre de 40 años de edad".
- Nunca responda a mensajes o anuncios de tabloneros que son sugestivos, obscenos, amenazantes o que lo hagan sentir incómodo. Motive fuertemente a su hijo que le diga si reciben los mismos. Si usted o su hijo reciben un mensaje de acoso sexual, envíeselo a su proveedor de servicios, y llame a la policía.
- Si usted se da cuenta de la transmisión, el uso o la visualización de pornografía infantil mientras está en línea, repórtelo inmediatamente al Centro Nacional para Menores Desaparecidos y Explotados llamando al 1-800-843-5678. También debe notificar a su proveedor de servicio en línea y llamar a la policía. Esto puede ser un comportamiento criminal e inmoral.
- Recuerde, todo lo que lee en línea NO siempre es cierto. Si hay una oferta “demasiado bueno para ser verdad”, usualmente lo es. Tenga cuidado de una oferta o de que alguien se acerque a su casa.
- ¡Establezca pautas razonables para el uso de la computadora, teléfonos móviles y el uso de teléfonos inteligentes con sus hijos! Si un niño o un adolescente pasa una cantidad excesiva de tiempo enviando mensajes de texto, especialmente a altas horas de la noche, debe haber una causa para preocuparse. ¡Asegúrese de hacer de esto una actividad familiar! Mantenga la computadora en la habitación familiar, en vez de en la habitación de un niño. Conozca a los amigos “en línea” de su hijo así como conoce a sus otros amigos.

Espero que estas sugerencias, desarrolladas por expertos, puedan ayudar a los padres y guardianes. Los padres y guardianes tienen grandes responsabilidades y retos. Están en nuestras oraciones diarias.

Dios los bendiga, Padre Herb
