Stewardship

"Christian stewards are conscientious and faithful. After all, the first requirement of a steward is to be found trustworthy (I Corinthians 4:2). In the present case, moreover, stewardship is a uniquely solemn trust. If Christians understand it and strive to live it to the full, they grasp the fact they are no less than "God's Co-Workers" (I Corinthians 3:9) with their own particular share in his creative, redemptive and sanctifying work".
