While [the disciples] were eating, Jesus said, "Take it and eat it, for this is my body" (Matthew 26:26). He then gave thanks and offered them the cup and said, "Drink it, all of you, for this is my blood, which seals God's covenant, my blood poured out for many for the forgiveness of sin." (Matthew 26:27-28).

Jesus often spoke in parables but not here. Here, Jesus is speaking clearly and emphatically. Jesus wants us to understand that the bread and wine are holy elements. Clearly, the Scriptures warn us about taking part in Communion without recognizing its significance (see 1 Corinthians 11:23-30).

So it is with great respect and reverence that we come to the Communion table, recognizing that the consecrated bread and wine are the Real Presence of Jesus, body and blood, soul and divinity. It is that Real Presence that accomplished on the cross our salvation.

Good news. We have five newly ordained priests, Fathers David Thomas Angelino, Jeffrey Lee Bame, Simon Daudet Kipiti, Elias Lopez, and Richard Anthony McNeillie, who were ordained to the Sacred Order of priesthood through the imposition of hands and invocation of the Holy Spirit by His Eminence Daniel Cardinal DiNardo this Saturday, June 6, 2015.

May God bless our new priests and their priestly ministries in Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston.

Let us pray for more vocations to priesthood and religious life from our St. Thomas More.

PRACTICAL TIPS TO PREPARE FOR YOUR CHILD’S BAPTISM

1. Register in the Baptismal Preparation class early in your pregnancy.
2. Prayerfully study the Baptism ceremony and its rich symbols.
3. Choose Godparents who will be real and long lasting help in the Christian formation of your child. Notify them in advance that they will need to take the Baptismal Preparation class too. They are meant to be more than honorary sponsors.
4. Encourage relatives and friends to be present for the Baptism (not just the party).
5. Set aside the symbols from your child’s Baptism (candle, white garment, Baptismal certificate, pictures) and keep them as reminders of the ongoing importance of the event.

WHEN: Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m.
WHERE: St Thomas More Adult Education Building – St Paul Room

Aquí Jesús, como a menudo lo hizo, estaba hablando simbólicamente. Jesús quiere que entendamos que el pan y el vino no son solo elementos sagrados en sí y por sí mismos. Pero representan algo que es sumamente Sagrado. Claramente, las Escrituras nos advierten acerca de participar en la Comunión sin reconocer su significado. (vea 1 Corintios 11:23-30).

Es por eso que con gran respeto y reverencia venimos a la mesa de la Comunión, reconociendo que es un símbolo de lo que nuestro Señor Jesucristo hizo por nosotros en la cruz.

Que Dios bendiga a nuestros nuevos sacerdotes y a sus ministerios sacerdotales en la Arquidiócesis de Galveston-Houston.

Oremos para pedir por mas vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa de nuestra comunidad de St. Thomas More.

Austin Bennett Tice is a homeschooled, Eagle Scout, National Merit Finalist, graduate of Georgetown University, former Captain in the United States Marine Corps and recipient of the 2012 George Polk Award for War Reporting. He is the eldest of seven children, and was born and raised in Texas.

In May of 2012, the summer before his final year at Georgetown Law School, he chose to go to Syria as a Freelance Journalist to report on the conflict there.
