Holy Week is here. The Proclamation of the Passion at this Sunday contains a number of major themes. Here are three of the most important:

- God’s mercy. Luke 22:61, “the Lord turned and looked at Peter.”
- God’s forgiveness. Luke 23:34, “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.”
- God’s promise of Paradise. Luke 23: 43, “Today you will be with me in Paradise.”

It is safe to proclaim today that The Passion is a love story. Jesus is God's love for the whole world. He came to “save His people from their sins.” (Matthew 1:21)

At today’s mass, the priest will bless the palms. Because the palms are blessed, they are now sacramentals, which "are sacred signs instituted by the Church. They prepare [us] to receive the fruit of the sacraments and sanctify different circumstances of life" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, number 1667). Sacramentals should be treated with respect and never be thrown away. Keep and display these blessed palms at your family altar. Return them to church next year where the old Palms will be burned, and the ashes will be used at Ash Wednesday 2017.

And she shall bring forth a son, and you shall call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.
