"If you love me, you will keep my commandments."
John 14:15

St. Therese of Lisieux, whose 100th anniversary of death we celebrate this year, was a master of the spiritual life and taught the “little way” of childlike simplicity and obedience to God as the way to grow in love.

Though bound by the walls of her cloister, St. Therese discovered unlimited freedom to reach the heights of holiness through courageous devotion to love. She wrote in The Story of a Soul (L’Histoire d’une Ame) “At last I have found my vocation. In the heart of the Church, I will be Love!”

In her Story of a Soul, for example, she wrote about the Wash day at Le Carmel. In the convent laundry of Lisieux, she worked opposite a Sister who would splash her with dirty water while washing the handkerchiefs. She refrained from her inclination to draw back and wipe her face to show the Sister how much this annoyed her.

St. Therese explained her interior motives with these words: “Far from being like to those great souls who from their childhood practice all sorts of macerations, I made my mortification consist solely in the breaking of my will, restraining a hasty word, rendering little services to those around me without making anything of it, and a thousand other things of this kind.”

Like St. Therese, we are students of the love of God. The Commandments are the lessons by which we, simple children, will master the love of God our Father in thought, word and action. Let us celebrate our joy in the resurrection of the Lord and to express in our lives the love we celebrate by doing goods for others.

Special prayers are needed. STM are so blessed with many vocations to priesthood and religious life. Among those are in discernment, Mr. David Hust was ordained as transitional deacon for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston on Saturday May 13th. (the Priestly Ordination is in Summer of 2018). Please say extra and special prayers for him and for all our Seminarians. Thank you.

Fr. Hai

“Si ustedes me aman, cumplirán mis mandamientos.”
Juan 14:15

Santa Teresita de Lisieux, este año celebramos 100 años de su muerte, Teresita fue una maestra de la vida espiritual y enseñó el “pequeño camino” como la simplicidad infantil y la obediencia a Dios como el camino para crecer en el amor.

Aunque estaba unida por las paredes de claustro, Santa Teresa descubrió una libertad ilimitada para alcanzar las alturas de la santidad a través de su valiente devoción al amor. Ella escribió en su libro “La historia de una alma”:
“Por fin he encontrado mi vocación: ¡En el corazón de la Iglesia, será el Amor!”

En su libro del Alma, Santa Teresa escribió sobre el Día de Lavado en el lavado en el Carmelo. En el lavadero del convento de Lisieux, trabajaba frente a una hermana que la salpicaba con agua sucia mientras lavaba los pañuelos. Santa Teresa se abstuvo de su inclinación a retraerse y a limpiar su rostro para mostrar a la Hermana cuánto esto la molestaba.

Santa Teresa explicó sus motivos interiores con estas palabras: “Lejos de ser como esas grandes almas que desde su niñez practican todo tipo de maceraciones, hice mi mortificación consistente únicamente en romper mi voluntad, conteniendo una palabra precipitada, dando servicios a los que me rodean sin hacer sin esperar nada, y mil otras cosas de este tipo”

Como Santa Teresita, somos estudiantes del amor de Dios. Los Mandamientos son las lecciones por las cuales nosotros como niños sencillos, dominaremos el amor de Dios nuestro Padre en pensamiento, palabra y acción. Celebremos nuestra alegría en la resurrección del Señor y expresemos en nuestras vidas el amor que celebramos haciendo bienes por los demás.

Se necesitan oraciones especiales. Nuestra parroquia está bendecida con vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa. Entre los que están en discernimiento, David Hust de nuestra parroquia fue ordenado diácono de transición para la Arquidiócesis de Galveston-Houston el sábado 13 de Mayo. (La ordenación sacerdotal será en el verano del 2018). Por favor, hagan oraciones extra especialmente para él y para todos nuestros seminaristas. Gracias.

Thank You

The Hoffman and Garcia families extend profound thanks to the community of St. Thomas More Parish for the immense outpouring of love, prayers, and physical support offered to Kate and the rest of our family as she endured what God asked of her in the final chapter of her life. We have always known we were blessed to be a part of the STM family, but never more so than during our recent trials as you wrapped us in generosity beyond measure. May God continue to bless you all!

Invitamos a todos los fieles a unir sus voces al coro Fiat de María, de la misa de 7pm, para juntos alabar a la Santísima Trinidad en la Celebración Eucarística. Si le gustaría unirse al coro, por favor de comunicarse con Rogelio Mendoza en persona o por correo electrónico, rogelio@stmhouston.org

The Gabriel Project needs telephone volunteers to take calls from pregnant mothers for 4 hours per week. We will train you to be the Good Samaritan to these moms and the joy of helping them to trust God and give life to their child. You can take the phone calls in your home, which makes it very easy to participate in this corporal work of mercy. Must be able to use the internet and bilingual volunteers especially needed. Please call or email the Gabriel Project Coordinator for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, Cathy McConn, cathymcconn@mac.com or 713-598-1675, for more information.
