“A Family of Families”
Our mission and vision: We are a people called together by God into the Roman Catholic parish of Saint Thomas More. We are challenged to imitate Jesus as:
Priest by prayer, worship, and celebration of the sacraments;
Prophet by educational programs and witness to Gospel truth in our lives;
King by service to parishioners and others’ spiritual and physical needs in order that “we may merit meet in heaven.”
(St. Thomas More)

“Una Familia de Familias”
Nuestra misión y visión: Somos un pueblo convocados por Dios en la parroquia católica de Santo Tomás Moro. Tenemos el desafío de imitar a Jesús como: sacerdote por la oración, la adoración y celebración de los sacramentos; profeta a través de nuestros programas educativos y testimonio de la verdad del Evangelio en nuestras vidas; rey a través del servicio a las necesidades espirituales y físicas, de tal manera que “nos reúnan merecidamente en el Cielo.”
Today we hear another parable, this time about the landowner who plants a vineyard. So, what is a Parable? A parable is basically a short and simple story that illustrates a deep and important message.

The Gospel of St. Matthew contains the following 24 parables:

The Lamp Under a Basket (5:14-15)
The Wise and Foolish Builders (7:24-27)
New Cloth on an Old Garment (9:16)
New Wine Into Old Wineskins (9:17)
The Strong Man (12:29)
The Sower (13:3-9)
The Tares (13:24-30)
The Mustard Seed (13:31-32)
The Leaven (13:33)
The Hidden Treasure (13:44)
The Pearl of Great Price (13:45-46)
Drawing in the Net (13:47-50)
The Householder (13:52)
The Lost Sheep (19:10-14)
The Unforgiving Servant (18:23-35)
The Workers in the Vineyard (20:1-16)
The Two Sons (21:28-32)
The Wicked vineyard tenants (21:33-41)
The Great Banquet (22:1-14)
The Budding Fig Tree (24:32-35)
The Faithful Servant (24:42-51)
The Ten Bridesmaids (25:1-13)
The Talents (25:14-30)
The Sheep and the Goats (25:31-46)

In Matthew’s account, the story of wicked tenants was not about the vineyard, the produce, or the tenant farmers; in this parable, it was about God’s mercy. Jesus is illustrating how God freely and abundantly showers His grace upon us. And no matter how many times we reject God, God keeps working on establishing a relationship with us!

Here are the questions for us to meditate this week.

How will we respond to God’s mercy?

How will we accept this gift of ‘second chance’?

How will we respond to the gift with faith and trust that leads us to act in responsible and generous ways towards God and others? OR are we content, like the tenants, to assume that we can get something for nothing?

“Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit.” (Matthew 21:43)

DEACON’S CORNER

St. Thomas More has purchased a gift for every family in our parish.

That gift is a subscription to FORMED (formed.org), so that each of us might grow in our relationship with Jesus Christ and in our desire to share our Faith with others, especially those closest to us. Your family can prepare for Mass each week by watching an insightful five-minute video on the Sunday Readings: OPENING THE WORD and then have a family discussion.

OUTREACH

Our friends and neighbors face many difficulties and look for hope, courage and strength to ease their burdens. We should always treat our friends/neighbors with compassion.

Vincentian Reflection: In today’s readings, Jesus told his disciples this parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard….The landowner says to his grumbling laborers, “Are you envious because I am generous?” God’s generosity with us goes far beyond any measurement by human standards. St. Vincent de Paul knew himself to be sustained by God’s motherly and fatherly love. In prayer we ask: God, our father, give us generous hearts, help us to find a way to peace and forgiveness. God, our mother, give us compassionate hearts, help us to be merciful and loving. Amen.

The Gabriel Project is a Pro-life parish-based apostolate of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston offering assistance to women experiencing difficult circumstances during pregnancy. Gabriel Project volunteers act to provide practical advice and help as well as spiritual support and Christian witness to mothers in need. If you need help, please call 713-225-5826.

Choir Member Experience: I have been a member of the choirs since they were first organized. I do not have a trained singing voice. But I have been able to join in the praise of God through song, another form of prayer. If I can maintain my membership in the choir for forty years, with my voice and minimum training, I believe that anyone who may have the same background can join us. You must decide to believe that you can sing with others with the training. Consider this an open door for you to pray to God in song.
The door is open... come in. Ed Sharp
When you join the choir:
1. You join a ministry and serve the church.
2. You participate in music and prayer.
3. You get a fee education in music and voice.
4. You have a joyful hobby.
5. You join a diverse group and have a chance to make lasting friendships.
