“A Family of Families”
Our mission and vision: We are a people called together by God into the Roman Catholic parish of Saint Thomas More. We are challenged to imitate Jesus as He:
- Priests by prayer, worship, and celebration of the sacraments;
- Prophet by educational programs and witness to Gospel truth in our lives;
- King by service to parishes and others’ spiritual and physical needs in order that “we may be present in heaven.” (St. Thomas More)

“Una Familia de Familias”
Nuestra misión y visión: Somos una gente llamados por Dios a la parroquia católica de Santo Tomás Moro. Estamos desafíos a imitar a Jesús como:
- Profetas por oración, adoración y celebración de los sacramentos;
- Profetas por programas educativos y testimonio de la verdad del Evangelio en nuestras vidas;
- Reyes por servicio a las parroquias y a otras necesidades espirituales y físicas con el fin de que “nos reunimos en el cielo.”

The differences between Matthew and Luke are significant though.
1. In Luke, the story starts with "a certain man," but here, Matthew, it is the King.
2. In Luke, it is a great supper, but in Matthew, it is a wedding banquet.
3. In Luke, there is one invitation, but here in Matthew there are two.
4. In Luke, the invited guests make excuses, but in Matthew guests refuse and turn violent.
5. In Luke, the invited guests are passed by, but in Matthew, guests are destroyed.

What are the points of Matthew’s parable of the Wedding Feast?

A. Humanity should not reject and deny that there is a God. God exists!!
B. Humanity is invited to respond to the invitation on God’s terms, not our own.
C. ‘He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead...’ (see Nicene Creed)

Now, how do we apply that which we read in this Gospel lesson to our daily lives?

A. Don’t miss Sunday Eucharist. We are blest by God to be members of His Church. We have been invited to partake of the feast and we have accepted the invitation. When we attend Holy Eucharist celebration, we share in the feast that the King, Christ Jesus, has readied for us and doing this we prepare ourselves for an eternal feast in the life to come. Saint Pope John Paul II described the Mass as "Heaven on Earth," explaining that what "we celebrate on Earth is a mysterious participation in the heavenly liturgy."
B. We prepare ourselves to meet our King and God by developing within ourselves this virtue of charity. (see Matthew 25)

The Bible says that “now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.” (2 Corinthians 6:2)

So it is now the time for each of us to begin loving God with our whole soul, and heart, and strength, and to begin loving our neighbors as ourselves.

CHARITY (LOVE) IN ACTION.
- Come and support Parish & school Octoberfest today;
- Donations of monetary, non-perishable food to Food Pantry of STM (Drop off your donations at Parish office or in the church narthex.)
- Help neighbors / friends to repair flood homes;
- Practice patience, patience .... Patience.

FOR MASS INTENTIONS PLEASE COME BY THE PARISH OFFICE.
PARA INTENCIONES DE LA MISA FAVOR DE PASAR POR LA OFICINA PARROQUIAL.

That gift is a subscription to FORMED (formed.org), so that each of us might grow in our relationship with Jesus Christ and in our desire to share our Faith with others, especially those closest to us. Your family can prepare for Mass each week by watching an insightful five-minute video on the Sunday Readings; OPENING THE WORD and then have a family discussion.

VIRTUS Training for Volunteers:
Protecting God's Children is the program selected by the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston to educate clergy, staff, and volunteers who work with children and youth about child sexual abuse and the ways to create a safe environment for children. The 3-hour live session includes videos and facilitated discussions that focus on the prevention of abuse and the protection of children. Adults learn how to recognize the warning signs of sexual abuse and to respond appropriately. You will learn about steps that the faith community can take to create a safe environment for all God's children and how to respond when adults behave in a way that raises concerns.

Step 1: Class: The first step to volunteering is to attend a Virtus - Protecting God's Children class. Go to virtusonline.org and register for a course under the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston for the class time and location convenient for you.

Volunteering: After you have attended the VIRTUS class and completed the paperwork, you are ready to begin volunteering.

All those of our parish who have the opportunity to be alone with or in proximity to either a minor or a vulnerable adult must comply with the archdiocese safe environment program. Examples include: catechists, chaperones, scout leaders, Knights of Columbus, Lectors, Ushers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Choir members, and all volunteers.

For more information you may contact Aida Gonzalez, 713-729-3435.

All choirs are still recruiting. We especially need children! 4th grade and older. Call Mary Endres 713-728-1530.

Choir Member Experience: I have been a member of the choirs since they were first organized. I do not have a trained singing voice. But I have been able to join in the praise of God through song, another form of prayer. If I can maintain my membership in the choir for forty years, with my voice and minimum training, I believe that anyone who may have the same background can join us. You must decide to believe that you can sing with others with the training. Consider this an open door for you to pray to God in song.

The door is open... come in. Ed Sharp

When you join the choir:
1. You join a ministry and serve the church.
2. You participate in music and prayer.
3. You get a fee education in music and voice.
4. You have a joyful hobby.
5. You join a diverse group and have a chance to make lasting friendships.
