I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Responsorial Psalm

Siempre confiare en el Señor.

SALMO RESPONSORIAL
Don’t give up chocolate for Lent this year, but “our Isaacs”.

To give up something we are deeply loved, connected with is one of the most difficult task that we must undertake in life. In the First reading today (Genesis 22:1-2, 9a.10-13, 15-18), God asked Abraham to sacrifice his son, Isaac, as love offering. Abraham did not ask God why he should do so. He simply listened, obeyed and set out to execute when God sent an angel to stop and Abraham was given a ram to use instead of his son.

In the Second reading today (Romans 8:31-34) we were told that God did not spare his own Son but gave him up for our benefit. Wow! God gave up what is most precious to Him. We have the confirmation of the love God placed on his Son Jesus in the Gospel Reading where he said: “this is my Son, the beloved…”

Today there is a call on all of us to give up our ‘earthly Isaacs’. Our Isaac represents those things, such as money, sport, toys, foods, wine collections, properties...etc, that are priceless to us. Those things consume our time and take foremost places in our life. And today we were told that our transfiguration—true changes—comes after giving our Isaacs. If we don’t let go the Isaacs, we may not be able to hear the voice of God calling us, “His beloved sons and daughters.”

May we have a great Sunday of Lent and a blessed week ahead.

OUTREACH

Vincentian Reflection: 02/25/2018

Jesus took Peter, James and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. We can find the rhythm of the dying and rising of the paschal mystery everywhere. In the gospel we see the transfigured glory then allusion to Jesus’ dying. In our daily lives we see the “dying and rising” between our work and leisure, between times with loved ones and times away, between success and failure, between doing something we would enjoy and doing something else we would enjoy more. In our daily lives as we see the paschal mystery unfolding, the distance between the religious and secular spheres of our lives becomes less and less. Instead of putting religion in a neat box it becomes truly the very way we live. “Pope John Paul II says to the laity: ‘There cannot be two parallel lives in your existence as lay men and women: on the one hand, the so-called ‘spiritual life’, with its values and demands; on the other, the so-called secular life’ that is life in a family, at work, social relationships, in the responsibilities of public life and in culture… Every activity, every situation, every precise responsibility are the occasions ordained by Providence for a ‘continuous exercise of faith, hope and charity.’”

The Gabriel Project is a Pro-life parish-based apostolate of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston offering assistance to women experiencing difficult circumstances during pregnancy. Gabriel Project volunteers act to provide practical advice and help as well as spiritual support and Christian witness to mothers in need. If you need help, please call 713-225-5826.

Lent is a good time for sacrificing. Let us deny ourselves something every day to help others.

Diocesan Services Fund 2018 (DSF)
Parish Goal: $193,000.00
Total Amount Paid: $20,611.00
Total Amount Pledged: $36,216.00
Total Number of Participant: 113
Total Number of Households: 4368
Average Participant Pledge: 320.50

Pledged Over (Under) Goal: ($156,784.00)
Percent Paid: 10.68%

Please think and pray about how much your family can afford to participate. If we go over our goal, half of what is excess of our goal returns to the ministry needs of our parish.

Our parish is required to meet our goal, whether paid by us individually or paid from our general parish funds at the end of the year.

Por favor, oren y piensen sobre cuánto puede permitirse su familia hacer un compromiso a los Fondos Diocesanos.

Si repasamos nuestra meta, la mitad de lo que es exceso de nuestra meta se regresa a las necesidades ministeriales de nuestra parroquia.

Nuestra parroquia debe cumplir con la meta que nos da la Arquidiócesis ya sea pagado por nosotros individualmente o pagado con nuestros fondos generales de nuestra parroquia al final del año. Ayudemos a nuestra Arquidiócesis.

Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma

pensamientos de nuestro, PASTOR

No renuncies a ser obediente a Dios durante la Cuaresma, sino a "nuestro Isaac terrenal".

Renunciar a algo que profundamente amamos, es una de las tareas más difíciles que debemos emprender en la vida. En la primera lectura de hoy (Génesis 22: 1-2, 9a.10-13, 15-18), Dios le pidió a Abraham que sacrificara a su hijo, Isaac, como ofrenda de amor. Abraham no le preguntó a Dios por qué debería hacerlo. Simplemente escuchó, obedeció y se dispuso a sacrificar, entonces Dios envió a un ángel a detenerlo y Dios le dio un carnero a Abraham para sacrificarlo en lugar de su hijo.

En la segunda lectura de hoy (Romanos 8: 31-34) nos dice que Dios no evito el sacrificio de su propio Hijo sino que lo entregó para nuestro beneficio. ¡Guauu! Dios renunció a lo más apreciado para él. Tenemos la confirmación del valor que Dios le dio a su Hijo Jesucristo en la lectura del Evangelio, donde dijo: "este es mi Hijo, el amado ..."

Hoy hay un llamado a todos a renunciar a nuestro 'Isaac terrenal'. Nuestro Isaac representa esas cosas, como el dinero, el deporte, los juegos, las comidas, la colección de vinos y las propiedades y etc., que no deberían tener importancia para nosotros. Todo esto consumen nuestro tiempo y ocupan los primeros lugares en nuestra vida. Y hoy escuchamos que nuestra transfiguración -nuestro cambio- viene después de dejar al Isaac terrenal. Si no dejamos ir al Isaac terrenal, es posible que no podamos escuchar la voz de Dios llamándonos "Sus amados hijos e hijas."

Les deseo un gran domingo de Cuaresma y una bendecida semana.
