Palm Sunday
Domingo de Ramos
thoughts from our Pastor, FR. HAI

We are at the beginning of Holy Week during which we reflect on the final journey of Jesus.

Monday of Holy Week. At the beginning of the last Week of his life, Jesus experienced great kindness from Mary of Bethany. On our own journey through life, we will experience people like Mary who support us on our journey, and, hopefully, we can be for others what Mary was for Jesus, a kindly and generous presence in an often hostile world.

Tuesday of Holy Week. In today’s gospel, Jesus says to us, “As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; remain in my love, as I remain in his love.” He wants us to have that same relationship with him as he has with his Father. That is something worth pondering, during this Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday).

Wednesday of Holy Week. This is “Spy Wednesday,” so called from the Lord’s betrayal by Judas Iscariot, one of the original Twelve. Today is a day to pray especially for all those who have tragically taken their own lives, trying to escape from the depths of despair; and to pray for grace, compassion and friendship for any poor soul who may be tempted to suicide.

Holy Thursday. The Lord’s Supper is not just “remembering” a past event, but continues to be life-giving through the memorial celebration of Sunday Eucharist. Today, we are united with Jesus by allowing him to wash our feet, to perform for us his great act of loving service. What Jesus does for us is an example of how we must live “for” service of God and others.

Good Friday. “It is finished” (John 19:30) means that our sins have been completely forgiven. As we look up to the cross today, venerate the cross today, and contemplate Jesus dying to make the full payment for our sins, let us thank Him, and let us promise to Jesus that our whole lives will be one unbroken song of thanking to Him, and that we will try to avoid near occasions of sin.

Holy Saturday. St. John the Evangelist proclaims: “The Son of Man must be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son.” (John 3:13-17)

“Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom” (Lk 23:42). The instrument of his death has become the instrument of our life – which is why today we proclaim the triumph of new life, poured out from the Cross.

Vincentian Reflection: 03/25/2018
Serving others is an inspiration.

Vincentian Reflection: Jesus found an ass and sat upon it, as is written: Fear no more, O daughter Zion; see, your king comes, seated upon an ass’s colt. The essence of discipleship is that we carry his cross. Disciples go wherever the Master goes. Coming to understand who Jesus is, his mission, and how that relates to us his disciples is not an easy task; it takes a lifetime. Like Jesus, to be faithful followers by taking up our cross means we will feel this in the depths of our humanity: we will suffer, we will lose heart, we will cry out to God to take life’s miserable lot away from us. But also like Jesus we have divine life which gives us the strength to carry our cross. It is divine life pulsating within us — which we first receive at our baptism — that raises up our humanity enabling us to be faithful disciples carrying our crosses. Jesus’ dying love gives meaning to the many “crosses” his followers are called to bear...the cross today may take the following forms especially: laboring daily, and perseveringly, in the service of the poor; sharing the helplessness and pain of the marginalized; standing in solidarity with the abandoned and suffering; accepting painful events, that we can do nothing about; bearing sickness, our own and that of others; coming to grips with aging; enduring the death of friends and family. The following of the crucified Lord is the supreme act of faith; it is a surrender in hope and love into the incomprehensible mystery of God.

The Gabriel Project is a Pro-life parish-based apostolate of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston offering assistance to women experiencing difficult circumstances during pregnancy. Gabriel Project volunteers act to provide practical advice and help as well as spiritual support and Christian witness to mothers in need. If you need help, please call 713-225-5826.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Prayer Shawls & Blankets are available at the Rectory Office. They are intended as symbols of God’s loving and healing presence, wrapping our loved ones in His caring arms. They are reminders that we are all surrendered by the prayers of others.

All are welcome to join us making these items, on the 1st, 3rd & 5th Thursdays of each month, 10:00am, Donovan’s Den. Contact: Margaret Schueler, 713-666-1311, meschueler2@gmail.com

The annual St. Thomas More Men’s Retreat is being held the weekend of April 6-8, 2018 at the Holy Name Retreat Center, 430 Bunker Hill Road, Houston 77024. This is the weekend after Easter and gives you the opportunity to round out your Easter celebration contemplating the theme “Hail to the Cross, Our Only Hope?” The question is directed to each of us. As Christians of the 21st century living in the “developed world” do we really perceive and embrace the Cross as our only hope?

To register, go to www.HolyNameRetreatCenter.com/Retreats, call 713-464-0211 or contact parish retreat coordinator Hiett Ives at 832-372-6900, Hiett@HiettIves.com for more information.
