“Thus it is written that the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations.”

_Luke 24:46-47_

“Todo esto estaba escrito: los padecimientos del Mesías y su resurrección de entre los muertos al tercer día. Luego debe proclamarse en su nombre el arrepentimiento y el perdón de los pecados, y yendo después a todas las naciones.”

_Lucas 24, 46-47_
thoughts from our Pastor, FR. HAI

In the second reading of this Sunday, 1 John 2:1-5a, Apostle John says that Jesus Christ is expiation not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. Indeed, when we sin—like when we violated one or more of the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17), we owe a debt to God, and we deserve to be punished. But Jesus, who was God in flesh (John 1:1, 14), took our sins upon Himself and bore them in His body on the cross (1 Peter 2:24). Jesus then died on the cross and paid for our sins. Jesus paid the ultimate price to set us free from eternal damnation. The price for our freedom, i.e. New life in heaven, was so high we could never pay it. But Jesus paid it for us, as the St. Paul stated in this words. “[Jesus] who offered himself as a ransom for all.” (1 Timothy 2:6a)

Dear my brothers and sisters, Easter Sunday may have been two weeks ago, but let us remember that Easter Time draws us into a process of learning, cleansing, and deep changing of our own lives.

As we march into the third week of Easter, let us born again in Spirit. Let us be attentive to the fact that we need to listen, study, and meditate on the Word of God. Let us rise to learn more about Catholic faith and help other people to know about the Risen Jesus and His Church.

I wish you a more glorious week ahead and continue to shout “Alleluia, The Lord is Risen, Alleluia!”

OUTREACH

Vincentian Reflection: 04/15/2018
Serving others is an inspiration.

Vincentian Reflection: Jesus stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.” Jesus “was made known” in repentance and forgiveness. Forgiveness is an encounter with the risen Christ. When we offer and receive forgiveness our hearts ought to burn because of the encounter with the risen Christ within us. This is resurrected life: “You are forgiven.” This is our witness to the resurrection: “I forgive you.” We must walk and act like a forgiven people. Forgiveness is the virtue that enables us to allow past hurts to determine our decisions and actions in the here and now. Forgiveness opens up the space for creating together with the one forgiven a new future where we can live in peace. This is how Jesus is known. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul conference meeting is the heart from which SVDP activity radiates and the sanctuary where its work is organized. The meeting provides a privileged occasion wherein the love of Christ is manifested member to member, where members are open, one to another, embracing each other as brother and sister, where the healing presence of Christ can be experienced and can grow to overflowing dimensions that can be shared with others.

The Gabriel Project is a Pro-life parish-based apostolate of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston offering assistance to women experiencing difficult circumstances during pregnancy. Gabriel Project volunteers act to provide practical advice and help as well as spiritual support and Christian witness to mothers in need. If you need help, please call 713-225-5826.

pensamientos de nuestro, PASTOR

En la segunda lectura de este domingo, 1 carta de Juan 2: 1-5, el apóstol Juan dice que Jesucristo no solamente se rindió por nuestros pecados sino por los del mundo entero. De hecho, cuando pecamos y volvamos uno o más de los Diez mandamientos (Exodo 20: 1-17), tenemos una deuda con Dios, y merecemos ser castigados. Pero Jesús, que era Dios en carne (Juan 1: 1, 14), tomó nuestros pecados sobre Sí mismo y los llevó en Su cuerpo en la cruz (1 de Pedro 2:24). Jesús luego murió en la cruz y pagó por nuestros pecados. Jesús pagó el precio máximo para liberarnos de la condenación eterna. El precio de nuestra libertad, es decir la Nueva vida en el cielo, era tan alta que nunca podríamos pagarla. Pero Jesús lo pagó por nosotros, como lo expresó San Pablo en estas palabras: "[Jesús] que se ofreció a sí mismo en rescate por todos" (1 Timoteo 2: 6).

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, el domingo de Pascua fue hace dos semanas, pero recordemos que seguimos en tiempo de Pascua y, que la Pascua nos acerca a un proceso de aprendizaje, limpieza y cambio profundo de nuestras propias vidas.

Al comenzar la tercera semana de Pascua, nacemos de nuevo en Espíritu. Prestemos atención al hecho de que debemos escuchar, estudiar y meditar en la Palabra de Dios. Levantémonos para aprender más sobre la fe católica y ayudar a otras personas a conocer a Jesús resucitado y su Iglesia.

Les deseo una semana más gloriosa y continué gritando "¡Aleluya, el Señor ha resucitado, Aleluya!"
