“A Family of Families”
Our mission and vision: We are a people called together by God into the Roman Catholic parish of Saint Thomas More. We are challenged to imitate Jesus as:
Priest by prayer, worship, and celebration
of the sacraments;
Prophet by educational programs and witness to Gospel truth in our lives;
King by service to parishioners and others spiritual and physical needs in order that “we may reign in heaven.”
(St. Thomas More)

“Una Familia de Familias” Nuestra misión y visión: Somos un pueblo convocado por Dios en la parroquia católica de Santo Tomás Moro. Tenemos el desafío de imitar a Jesús como: Sacerdote por la oración, la adoración y celebración de los sacramentos, Profeta por los programas educativos y testificación de la verdad del Evangelio en nuestras vidas; Rey a través del servicio a las familias y otras necesidades espirituales y físicas con el fin de que “nos reúnamos alegremente en el cielo.”
(Santo Tomás Moro)
Welcome New Families!

thoughts from our Pastor, FR. HAI

This Sunday’s gospel, John 10:11-18, testifies to the profound mystery of God’s freely given love for humanity. As a good shepherd takes care of his sheep, so Jesus, the Good Shepherd, cares for His sheep in an infinitely more excellent way. Let us then reflect how the good shepherd, i.e. the priests, lays down his life for the sheep.

Are you ready?
To be a priest is to be called by God, for He says clearly, “I have chosen you; you have not chosen me.” (John 15:16)
Priests will become a living symbol of God, not merely by their words, but by their entire life.

Father Jean-Baptiste Henri-Dominique Lacordaire (12 May 1802 – 21 November 1861), a French ecclesiastic, preacher, journalist, theologian and political activist, summarized the life of a Priest with this poem.

A PRIEST
by Jean-Baptiste Lacordaire
To live in the midst of the world without wishing its pleasures;
To be a member of each family,
yet belonging to none;
To share all suffering;
to penetrate all secrets;
To heal all wounds;
to go from men to God
and offer Him their prayers;
To return from God to men
to bring pardon and hope;
To have a heart of fire for Charity,
and a heart of bronze for Chastity
To teach and to pardon,
console and bless always.
My God, what a life;
and it is yours,
O priest of Jesus Christ.

My dear brothers, and sisters and my dear young people,
Father Lacordaire’s poem is what it means to be a priest. That is the vocation to the priesthood as Father Jean-Baptiste Lacordaire sees it. And, I can testify to the truthfulness of Father Lacordaire’s words.

Can there be a greater miracle of God’s grace? Can there be a greater vocation? If there is, I do not know about it.

Humbly, reverently, I ask you pray and support your priests. In a very special way, let us pray for soon to be a ordained priest, David Hust, who is a parishioner of St. Thomas More.

Good news: On Saturday, June 2, 2018, we will have new priests in our Archdiocese of Galveston and Houston! Among those to be ordained by bishop Cardinal DiNardo, David Hust will a priest of Jesus Christ. Father David Hust will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Thomas More on Sunday, June 17, 2018, at 5 PM. Father David Hust also will receive everyone and grant his first priestly blessings after mass in Servant Hall.

Again, pray for vocations, for priests, and plan to come to Father David’s mass of Thanksgiving. (More information coming later of how you can join me and others in celebration of Father David’s priesthood ordination.)

OUTREACH

Vincentian Reflection: 04/22/2018

Vincentian Reflection The good shepherd is concerned about, cares for, and protects the sheep even to the point of laying down his life for the sheep. The good shepherd fulfills the obligation of relationship. The relationship between shepherd and sheep (“I know mine and mine know me”) is likened to the relationship between the Father and the Son. This relationship requires of us disciples the same mission—to lay down our lives, too. Shepherding is serious business. It means that we cannot run away, but we must lay down our lives for the sake of others. It calls us to commit ourselves to good deeds, such as caring for the sick, feeding the hungry, clothing the poor, forgiving those who wrong us, loving others as God has loved us. These good deeds are the very “stuff” of our everyday living and loving, in our families and in our service to the poor. To those served, Vincentians are expected to give the same deep and serious thought that they give to their own blood family. Sharing does not consist merely in the distribution of material goods; it also implies that our personal resources and potential of mind and heart, of time and influence, are placed at the service of others. Sharing means taking part in the joys and sorrows, in the worries and the hopes of others. It equally involves a readiness, on the part of the members and the Society, to accept help, suggestions, advice, encouragement and collaboration. Sharing means being willing to be disturbed. It is a sign of the true spirit of charity to be ready to share ideas and to accept giving in on some of our own. We are all poor in one way or another. That is perhaps what draws us all closer to one another and to Him who consented to share our humanity.

The Gabriel Project is a Pro-life parish-based apostolate of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston offering assistance to women experiencing difficult circumstances during pregnancy. Gabriel Project volunteers act to provide practical advice and help as well as spiritual support and Christian witness to mothers in need. If you need help, please call 713-225-5826.
