thoughts from our Pastor, FR. HAI

The Solemnity of Pentecost marks the end of Easter. For 50 days we have been celebrating our redemption through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Today, we pray:

“Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and we shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth. Amen.”

Renewal—the process of being made spiritually new in the Holy Spirit—is not that easy. We all have experienced this:

We make commitment;
We fail
We confess. And,
We Re-commit; we Fail again; we Confess again. And,
We Re-re-commit.; we re-Fail again. .... Give up? No.

There is not a quick fix in spiritual life. For a deep, lasting spiritual change, it involves studying, training, testing and time, and a daily walk with Jesus.

As we live the Lord’s commandment (John: 15:17, ‘This I command you: love one another.’), let us remember that Spiritual change is brought about by the Holy Spirit. Holy daily living (or Sanctification) is a matter of staying away of worship of self, pleasure and of this world; and ‘Do whatever He[ Jesus] tells you.’ (John 2. The wedding at Cana)

Let us have the confidence that one day the transformation will be complete, and “we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is” (1 John 3:2).

DEACON’S CORNER

The Holy Trinity

The Catechism describes the Trinity as God’s “innermost secret,” which is that “God himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit …”

The Catechism then goes on to say something mind-blowingly amazing, “… and he has destined us to share in that exchange.” When this last line really hits home, it can transform our lives. We’ll reflect on this powerful idea in due course, but first, let’s try to appreciate the Trinity itself more deeply.

The Eucharist inexhaustibly strengthens the indissoluble unity and love of every Christian marriage. By the power of the sacrament, the marriage bond is intrinsically linked to the eucharistic unity of Christ the Bridegroom and his Bride, the Church (cf. Eph 5:31-32).

OUTREACH

Vincentian Reflection: 05/13/2018
Volunteers are needed!

Vincentian Reflection:

Jesus tells us that he is sending the Spirit to us. The Spirit is the Word speaking to us in a most profound way because he dwells with us and guides us to all truth. This Spirit is all we need, provided we allow the Spirit to speak through us and not turn God’s word into our word. Openness to the Spirit within is our guarantee that what we speak as disciples is spoken in Jesus’ name. This Pentecost commemoration isn’t simply recalling a past event but celebrating what God is doing with us now. In baptism each of us received the Spirit, that was our Pentecost. The Spirit dwells within us so we can be faithful and true disciples. The indwelling of the Spirit is a continual Pentecost! While at times one can hear the Spirit speak even in a noisy crowd, it is often only in silence that one hears the deepest voice, that one plumbs the depth of meaning. It is only when what is heard is pondered, that its full meaning is revealed. The quest for truth, therefore, involves prayerfulness and reflectiveness. Jesus turned to his Father again and again in prayer to listen to him and to seek his will. Prayer is then surely one of the privileged ways of listening. But it must always be validated by life. One who listens to “what the Spirit is telling me” in prayer, but who pays little heed to what others are saying in daily life is surely suspect. Prayer must be in contact with people and events, since God speaks not only in the silence of our hearts, but also (and often first of all) in the people around us.

The Gabriel Project is a Pro-life parish-based apostolate of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston offering assistance to women experiencing difficult circumstances during pregnancy. Gabriel Project volunteers act to provide practical advice and help as well as spiritual support and Christian witness to mothers in need. If you need help, please call 713-225-5826.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTES

View this bulletin online at www.DiscoverMass.com
La solemnidad de Pentecostés marca la temporada final de la Pascua. Durante 50 días hemos estado celebrando nuestra redención a través de la muerte y la resurrección de Jesucristo. Hoy oremos:

“Ven, Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles, y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor. Envía tu Espíritu Creador y renueva la faz de la tierra. Amen.

Renovaros, es el proceso de hacerse espiritualmente nuevo en el Espíritu Santo, no es tan fácil. Todos hemos experimentado algo así:
Nos comprometemos, fallamos,
Nos confesamos y,
nos comprometemos varias veces; y fallamos de nuevo; y
nos confesamos nuevamente. Y, nos volvemos a comprometer; y de nuevo volvemos a fallar. ... ¿Nos rendiremos? No.

No hay una solución rápida en la vida espiritual. Para un cambio espiritual profundo y duradero, se trata de estudiar, entrenar, probar y medir el tiempo, y caminar con Jesús diariamente.

Mientras vivimos el mandamiento del Señor, “Lo que yo les mando es que se amen los unos a los otros,” (Juan 15:17) recordemos que el cambio espiritual es dado por el Espíritu Santo. La vida diaria santa (o Santificación) es una cuestión de mantenerse alejado de la adoración del YO, el placer y de este mundo; y ‘Haz lo que Jesús te diga’. (Juan 2)

Tengan la confianza de que un día la transformación estará completa, y “seremos semejantes a él, porque lo seremos tal como es” (1 Juan 3:2).

Instrumentos de la misericordia de Dios:
