thoughts from our Pastor, FR. HAI

The prophet Ezekiel lived about 600 years before Christ. He was very comfortable with his life when the Spirit of God “set him on his feet.” Quickly Ezekiel discovered that his preaching was not welcome by many. Again, we see in today’s gospel, Jesus was not welcome in his home town. Why? It is because of his message and because of his breaking down the caste tradition. The latter is very important for us to know in order to understand Mark 6:1-6.

The Jewish tradition divided into a system:

[1] Kohanim—priestly class—are sons of Aaron who served as priests in the Temple in Jerusalem.

[2] Levites are the descendants of the tribe of Levi, who also worked in the Temple as musicians, singers, guards, and gate keepers.

[3] Yisraelim—Israelites—are those of the other 11 tribes, or common people.

Since He belongs to the [3] Yisraelim, and teaches like the [1] Kohanim—the educated class—Jesus is bucking the system. He is moving up! People of his little town could not accept his message nor his new claim of status [of Kohanim]. (See Luke 2:41-52, the boy Jesus in the temple, demonstrates how the priests were dummied by the wisdom & teaching of Jesus.

Like Jesus’ hometown people, we at times have a hard time to hear, see, experience divine message in ordinary. If today’s gospel means anything, we must confront any tendency we may have to judge others, take hurt and offense from them, reject them, and make them scapegoats of our own ungodly behaviors.

We must become aware of how we spread negativity, gossiping, rumors at home, at work—or wherever—we become like Pharisees and—or those of Jesus’ own people who so readily rejected him.

We must realize and understand how it is so easy to confuse reality with our own prejudices and preferred viewpoints. We need to see that every story has another side, every person has his or her own reasons for what they do.

God can touch our lives most powerfully, creatively and ordinarily.

Have happy Sunday and a wonderful week ahead.

OUTREACH

Vincentian Reflection: 07/08/2018

As Vincentians we are called to serve....

Jesus went to his own part of the country followed by his disciples. When the Sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue in a way that kept his audience amazed. They said: “Where did he get all this? Where did this man get all this?” They saw but they didn’t believe. The challenge of this gospel is to look beyond our own knowledge of others preconditioned by what we think we know about them and listen to them, allow them to teach us about God and how to be faith-filled disciples. God does not very often visit us in the unusual and spectacular, hitting us over the head so that we don’t miss God’s message of salvation. Most often God visits us in the ordinary circumstances of our own lives through ordinary people we meet who are faithful as Jesus was to their own mission to make known the gospel. It is too easy to dismiss the events of this gospel reading as past history. After all, we like to think, if we had been there and seen those mighty deeds, we would have believed. Really? Had we but eyes of faith, we would see that each day we are being surprised by joy. We have come to take so much that is good in life for granted. Is not your call to serve the poor a surprise, seeing that so many others are so imprisoned in themselves that their hearts remain untouched by the sufferings of the

As Jesus reminds us that he is the vine and we are the branches, and it is the branches through which nourishment enlivens the vine, so it is with parish ministries and organizations. There are many ministries and organizations by which our parish is enriched – some of which require occasional participation, and others which entail regular service.

One does not become a parishioner simply by attending Sunday Mass. Your involvement in one of these ministries and organizations will not only enrich your life, but it will also vitalize the communion of faith we enjoy here at St. Thomas More.
