thoughts from our Pastor, FR. HAI

Hello Saints!

In the Catechism of the Catholic (ccc 945-962), the Catholic Church always has taught that a Christian can worship only God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. No creature, no matter how good or beautiful—no angel, no saint, not even the Virgin Mary—deserves adoration. So clear! Catholics don’t pray to saints. But, why, what Catholics pray to the saints?

The word “saint,” comes from the Latin word, “sanctus,” which translates to—you guessed it—“holy”.

The New Testament refers to all Christians who follow the teachings of Jesus as saints. In his letters, St. Paul addresses to “the saints” of the cities like Ephesus and Corinth. St. Paul calls these people “saints” because they followed Christ’s teachings and their lives had been transformed in a way that made them different, made them holy.

The word “saint” then applies to all Christians. The actual Catholic title of “saint” applies more narrowly to the most extraordinary of Christians. To officially gain this title and become a saint, a believer must go through the process of canonization, in which the Catholic Church declares a person a saint after a formal review process of their life, as well as any miracles associated with the person. The most famous recent saints are Saint John Paul II and Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

Because of the saints’ radical commitment to Christ, and because they were largely successful in living an exemplary life, Catholics believe these saints find favor with God, and so can intercede on their behalf. That is why we pray, we ask the saints pray for us.

“Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it!” Luke 11:28 is marching order that Jesus gave us.

As I will participate in the pilgrimage to the Shrines of Italy from 30 October to 9 November of 2018, I would like to leave you (and I will be back) with 3 questions and answers on ‘Here come the saints’ teaching’:

1) Where we came from: (We came from God our Creator).
2) Who we are: (We are Children of God).
3) Where we are going to: (We are citizens of heaven).

Happy All Saints Day and may God’s mercy lead you on!

DIVINE MERCY

While your children are getting grounded in THEIR faith, YOU can build YOUR faith at the same time.

Take your children to their class, then head to Prinster Hall to join your fellow parents and parishioners in an adult faith building and strengthening program entitled Divine Mercy.

Coordinated by former CCE teacher and longtime parishioner Hiett Ives, this program is geared to building YOUR faith growth. Each session ends with plenty of time to get back for your children’s dismissal.

Head to Room “G” in Prinster Hall every Sunday at 9am.

Vincetic Reflection: 10/28/2018

Bless you who give of yourselves in his name

Vincetic Reflection: Bartimaeus, a blind man, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, “Jesus, son of David, have pity on me.” Many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more. The dynamic between Bartimaeus and Jesus is a perfect description of what faith is: Bartimaeus heard Jesus, cried out to him, persisted in his prayer, came to Jesus when he called, and spoke boldly of his need. All these actions; hearing, crying out, coming, speaking describe our Christian discipleship. We must let our faith lead us to Jesus and then we must follow him. Without persistence in prayer it will be impossible for us to follow Jesus faithfully on the road of self-giving. The encounter with Jesus in prayer keeps our relationship with God healthy and strong. The prayer of petition reminds us that disciples can do nothing on their own without Jesus’ help. At times we are doing our faith by reaching out to those around us in need; at other times we are being our faith by taking time to let our God be present to us in prayer. Our Lord wants us to persevere in prayer and not be discouraged because God seems slow in answering our prayers. Perhaps the reason we become discouraged in prayer is that we feel in a vague way that God is not taking us seriously. The truth is that it is not God who fails to take us seriously when we pray to Him, but rather we fail to take God seriously. Sometimes in our heart of hearts we pray without full confidence that He is going to give us what we ask. I wonder if God is slow in answering our prayers at times in order to perfect the confidence which He wishes us to have in Him who is our Father. Sometimes the reason of God’s delay in answering our prayers is that He wants to make us ready to accept what He desires to give us.
