Our week begins with “Gaudete Sunday.” Gaudete means “rejoice” in Latin. It comes from the first word of the Entrance antiphon of this Third Sunday of Advent. The spirit of joy that begins this week comes from the words of Paul, “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything.” (Philippians 4:4-5)

Where does one find joy? Here are some ways:
1. Reflect on the past for glimpses of God’s miracle works in your life.
2. Give thanks to God and to people as much and as often as you possibly can.
3. Verbalize joy in anticipating God’s plan with prayer; and, actively celebrate (live) sacraments, especially the sacrament of reconciliation.
4. and Serve where God has placed you.

And, how does one serve — to find joy? Jesus explains that we will find joy and will be judged by the way we love our neighbor: “Truly, I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of My family, you did it to Me.” (Matthew 25:40)

These practical tips for experiencing spiritual joy are just a small part of living a joyful Christian. Jesus describes what it means to abide in Him (in John 15:1-11).

As we will have more free time during this holiday days, let us reflect on these words of prophet Jeremiah 29:11-14 —

“For I know well the plans I have in mind for you—oracle of the LORD—plans for your welfare and not for woe, so as to give you a future of hope. When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me—oracle of the LORD—and I will change your lot; I will gather you together from all the nations and all the places to which I have banished you—oracle of the LORD—and bring you back to the place from which I have exiled you.”

Vincentian Reflection: 12/16/2018

What does our Lord ask of us? How do we respond?

Vincentian Reflection: The crowds asked John the Baptist, “What should we do?” He answered, “Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise.”… Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.”… Exhorting them in many other ways, he preached the good news to the people. The “good news” is a message of a topsy-turvy world. John baptizes and preaches to the crowds, the “common folk”, and in answer to the question “What should we do?” he answers to the effect, “more than you would wish to do or that can be expected of you”— share what you have with those who have not. John’s good news is that of a totally different way of seeing life. The question, “What should we do?” is asked three times in today’s gospel, and the answer is invariable: reach out to the marginalized with whatever you have and they need. This is the good news of John, and it is identical to the good news Jesus preached. John directs our attention to Jesus and the inauguration of his ministry to the poor and those in need. And so we ask, “What should we do?” Sr. Rosalie said: “One night I dreamed that I stood at the judgment seat of God. He received me with great severity and was about to pronounce my sentence to perdition, when suddenly I was surrounded by an immense throng of persons carrying old shoes, hats, and clothing which they showed to God and said, ‘She gave us all these things!’ Then God looked at me and said, ‘Because you gave all these old clothes in My Name, I open heaven to you. Enter, for all eternity!’”

pensamientos de nuestro, PASTOR

Nuestra semana comienza con el "domingo de Gaudete". Gaudete significa "Alégrate" en latín. Viene de la primera palabra de la Antífona de entrada de este tercer domingo de Adviento. El espíritu de alegría que comienza esta semana proviene de la palabras de Pablo: "Alégrese siempre en el Señor; Otra vez diré: Alégrate. Deja que tu amabilidad sea conocida por todos. El Señor está cerca. No te preocupes por nada" (Filipenses 4: 4-5)

¿Dónde se encuentra la alegría? Aquí hay algunas maneras:
1. Reflexiona sobre el pasado para ver las obras milagrosas de Dios en tu vida.
2. Da gracias a Dios y a las personas todas las veces que puedas.
3. Verbaliza el gozo al anticipar el plan de Dios con la oración; y, celebrar activamente los sacramentos, especialmente el sacramento de la reconciliación.
4. Servir donde Dios te ha puesto. Y, ¿cómo sirve uno para encontrar la alegría? Jesús explica que encontraremos gozo y seremos juzgados por la forma en que amamos a nuestro prójimo: "En verdad, les aseguro que todo lo que hicieron por uno de mis hermanos, aun por el más pequeño, lo hicieron por mí". (Mateo 25:40)

Recomiendo que seamos modestos con las cosas materiales en esta temporada de Adviento. No estemos tan saturados y abrumados por las cosas materiales que no tengamos tiempo y espacio para preparar el camino para el Señor.

Estos consejos prácticos para experimentar la alegría espiritual son solo una pequeña parte de como vivir un cristiano alegre. Jesús describe lo que significa permanecer en Él (en Juan 15: 1-11).

Durante estos días tendremos el tiempo para reflexionar sobre estas palabras del profeta Jeremías 29: 11-14: "Porque yo sé muy bien los planes que tengo para ustedes —afirma el Señor—, planes de bienestar y no de calamidad, a fin de darles un futuro y una esperanza. Entonces ustedes me invocarán, y vendrán a suplicarme, y yo los escucharé. Me buscarán y me encontrarán cuando me busquen de todo corazón. Me dejaré encontrar —afirma el Señor—, y los haré volver del cautiverio. [a] Yo los reuniré de todas las naciones y de todos los lugares adonde los haya dispersado, y los haré volver al lugar del cual los deporté», afirma el Señor.

Bienvenidos Nuevas Familias!
