Dear Friends in Christ,

The past week has been one of the more hectic weeks since my arrival at St. Thomas More. The Thursday before last, my phone rang at 3:30 a.m. It was Fr. Joseph. He was calling to inform me that there was a water leak in the church. I walked over to the church and saw water on the floor. Fr. Joseph and I then walked over to Servant Hall only to discover that a pipe had burst in the mechanical room. I can say that never in my life have I seen so much water coming down from a ceiling. The water from the burst pipe flooded the mechanical room, which then went through the wall and flooded the church. It was like a river flowing from the cry room all the way down to the doors by the adoration chapel. Within thirty minutes, our HVAC service company had the burst pipe under control and, within an hour or so, a water damage restoration company had arrived on site. The problem was resolved, but the damage had been done. Long story short, we will have to replace the floor of the church. We will do our best to get this project completed as soon as possible, and we will do our best to keep you up to date on the progress and where Mass will be celebrated.

Unexpected events and tragedies happen all the time. In the grand scheme of things, the damage in the church isn’t that big of a deal. Just last weekend, many of us were shocked when we discovered that NBA superstar Kobe Bryant passed away in a helicopter crash. What made the story even more upsetting was that his thirteen-year-old daughter, Gianna, died in the crash as well. In total, nine people passed away. It is a tragic story. Tragedies happen all the time, and in the midst of tragedy, we have to remember to never lose hope. Hope is focused on something good in the future, difficult but possible to attain. What is our ultimate future good? God himself and life in heaven.

It was reported that just a couple hours before the helicopter crash, Kobe and his daughter, Gianna, had attended Mass. At Mass we encounter and receive Jesus. Our faith in Jesus brings us the certainty and assurance that what we hope for is true. It’s our faith in Jesus that keeps us focused on heaven. It’s our faith in Jesus that helps us through tragedy. At Sunday Mass, we hear these words about Jesus, and they still ring true today: “Now, Master, you let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel” (Luke 2:29-32).

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Clark

Queridos amigos en Cristo:

La semana pasada fue una de las semanas más agitadas desde mi llegada a St. Thomas More. El jueves pasado, mi teléfono sonó a las 3:30 a.m. Fue el Padre Joseph. Me estaba llamando para informarme que había una fuga de agua en la iglesia. Fui a la iglesia y vi agua en el suelo. El Padre Joseph y yo caminamos hasta Servant Hall solo para descubrir que la tubería había explotado en la sala mecánica. Pude decir que nunca en mi vida había visto tanta agua caer del techo. El agua de la tubería reventada inundó la sala mecánica, que luego atravesó la pared e inundó la iglesia. Era como un río que fluye desde la sala de llanto para niños hasta las puertas de la capilla de adoración. En treinta minutos, nuestra compañía de servicio de HVAC tenía la tubería de ruptura bajo control y, dentro de una hora más o menos, una compañía de restauración de daños por agua había llegado al sitio. El problema se resolvió, pero el daño ya estaba hecho. En pocas palabras, tendremos que reemplazar el piso de la iglesia. Harremos todo lo posible para completar este proyecto lo antes posible, y haremos todo lo posible para mantenerlos informados sobre el progreso y donde celebraremos misa.

Eventos inesperados y tragedias suceden todo el tiempo. En el gran esquema de las cosas, el daño en la iglesia no es tan importante. El fin de semana pasado, muchos de nosotros nos sorprendimos cuando nos enteramos que la superestrella de la NBA Kobe Bryant falleció en un accidente de helicóptero. Lo que hizo la historia aún más triste fue que su hija de trece años, Gianna, también murió en el accidente. En total, nueve personas fallecieron. Es una historia trágica. Las tragedias suceden todo el tiempo, y en medio de la tragedia, debemos recordar no perder nunca la esperanza. La esperanza se centra en algo bueno en el futuro, difícil pero posible de lograr. ¿Cuál es nuestro mejor futuro? Dios mismo y la vida en el cielo.

Se informó que solo un par de horas antes del accidente del helicóptero, Kobe y su hija, Gianna, habían asistido a misa. En la misa encontramos y recibimos a Jesús. Nuestra fe en Jesús nos trae la certeza y la seguridad de que lo que esperamos es verdad. Nuestra fe en Jesús nos mantiene enfocados en el cielo. Es nuestra fe en Jesús que nos ayuda a superar la tragedia. En la misa dominical, escuchamos estas palabras acerca de Jesús, y todavía suenan verdaderas hoy: "Ahora, Señor, ya puedes dejar que tu servidor muera en paz como le has dicho. Porque mis ojos han visto a tu salvador, que has preparado y ofreces a todos los pueblos, luz que se revelará a las naciones y gloria de tu pueblo, Israel. (Lucas 2: 29-32).

De ustedes en Cristo,

Fr. Clark

MINISTERIO DE COMIDAS Y MINISTERIO SAMARITANO: Si está buscando una manera de ayudar a la comunidad parroquial, ¡considere unirse al ministerio de comidas y / o al ministerio samaritano! Estos dos ministerios le permiten practicar los actos corporales de mericordia con la comunidad. ¡Estamos buscando cocineros para ambos ministerios!

El Ministerio de Comidas proporciona comidas a los feligreses que no pueden cocinar por sí mismos debido a una situación médica a corto plazo. Estamos buscando cocineros que se comprometan a cocinar UN DÍA AL MES. También necesitamos personas que estén interesadas en ser un cocinero sustituto para el ministerio de comidas.

El Ministerio Samaritano ofrece una comida caliente para las familias en duelo y sus invitados después de un funeral. La comida será proporcionada, al igual la organización del salón y servida por el ministerio samaritano.

Ambos ministerios fueron partes activas importantes de nuestra comunidad parroquial durante décadas. ¡Estamos emocionados de ponerlos en funcionamiento nuevamente! Póngase en contacto con Monique Close (713) 628-3323 o mogeoclose@yahoo.com si tiene preguntas o para ser voluntario.
