WORKS OF MERCY 101

"The Spiritual Works of Mercy have long been a part of the Christian tradition, appearing in the works of theologians and spiritual writers throughout history. Just as Jesus attended to the spiritual well-being of those he ministered to, these Spiritual Works of Mercy guide us to "help our neighbor in their spiritual needs" (USCCA).

Forgiving Injuries

Forgiving others is difficult at times because we do not have God's limitless mercy and compassion. But Jesus teaches us that we should forgive as God forgives, relying on him to help us show others the mercy of God

✠ Let go of grudges

✠ Saying sorry is something we learn as kids, but how often do we really mean it? Forgiveness transforms hearts and lives

✠ Participate in the Sacrament of Penance

✠ Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet

Follow "Works of Mercy 101" over the next few weeks for examples of how we all can incorporate them into our daily lives during this Year of Mercy.

There will be an informational meeting on both destinations on Wednesday June 22. Light refreshments will be served so reservations are requested. Please contact Pat at 862-432-6475 for further details or to make your reservation for the presentation.

RESPECT LIFE

Update on your spiritually adopted baby (month eight): You're in the home stretch with your spiritually adopted baby. He is completely formed, and has been since 8 weeks. All he is doing now is gaining weight and making his mother uncomfortable with his size. But she's not worried now. In a short time, her baby will be born. She has planned to bring him home or to place him for adoption. Either way, she knows she can receive the assistance she needs from the Catholic Church and from the crisis pregnancy centers.

Your baby's mother appreciated the prayers you have said for her and her baby throughout the pregnancy. It hasn't been easy, but your prayers have given her grace to seek the help she needs.
