Fundraising Update: Our church building is in need of repairs and renovations. The finance committee is currently working on getting estimates. Meanwhile we have the opportunity to get matching funds from the diocese. Our goal is to raise $15,000 by the end of November.

The fund raising committee has met and agreed to the following fund raisers:

1. Raffle a Louis Vuitton purse
2. Raffle a 12 gauge Browning Mossy Oak Bottom Land shotgun
3. Have a church rummage sale
4. Have a booth at the mistletoe mart to sell frozen casseroles and tamales

We will be contacting you for your help and support with these projects. We all have gifts and talents that we can share with our parish family, thank you!

NOTE: World Mission Sunday (second collection) is on October 20th.

Brunch Sunday: This weekend we invite all to come to the school hall for our parish fellowship after 8.30am mass.

Respect Life Month, the Archdiocese of St. Louis will be hosting its 43rd Annual Respect Life Convention on Sunday, October 13 at the St. Charles Convention Center. Opening Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Mark Rivituso, followed by a lunch and a speech by Abby Johnson, national pro-life advocate and author. There will be workshops featuring local, state, and national pro-life leaders. To learn more, please visit the Respect Life Apostolate website.

MOCAN – Did you register to become a MOCAN member? Last week, our parish held a registration drive for the Missouri Catholic Advocacy Network of the Missouri Catholic Conference, the official public policy agency of the Catholic Church in Missouri. If you have not signed up yet, you may still do so by texting MOCAN to 50457, visiting www.mocatholic.org, or completing a MOCAN Enrollment Form located in the back of the church.
