The Missouri Catholic Conference held its 2019 Annual Assembly at the Missouri State Capitol building in Jefferson City, drawing Catholics from around the state to a day of fellowship, education and prayer. The theme for the day was "Raising the Next Generation of Catholic Advocates," issuing a call to young advocates to rise up and carry the mantle for those who have gone before. To read more about the event and to see photos from the day, read here: https://mocatolic.org/sites/missouricc/files/uploads/documents/septoct_gn_19.pdf

Fundraising Raffle Update - The fundraising committee asks that if you have money and sold ticket stubs for the shotgun and the Louis Vuitton purse, to please turn them in now. Mike Dale is receiving the money and ticket stubs. If you have tickets left after turning in what you have sold, please continue your selling efforts. Thanks so much. Mary Stutzman

Upcoming Second Collection – November 10th for the Archdiocese of Military Services. The AMS is a church entity. It is not a part of the Armed Forces and is not funded by the federal government. It is a “home” mission diocese that depends almost entirely on financial support from individual donors including personal donations from its military and VA chaplains, gifts from military communities, gifts from dioceses, charitable bequests, and grants.

The military chaplains are members of the Armed Forces and, as such, are paid by the government. The AMS must pay all the considerable travel costs for its clergy to visit military installations around the world. They do not travel on military aircraft. The AMS receives limited support from certain US dioceses and foundations that support Catholic causes.

This collection happens every three years. Please be generous.
