Deadly Silence!

Abortion is the most common, least regulated medical procedure and the number one killer in America. More lives are lost each year through abortion than all deaths due to cancer, heart attacks, accidents, AIDS, natural disasters, wars, illness and diseases combined. The savagery of war, the atrocities of the Nazi holocaust, graphic violence, natural disasters and critical and bloody medical procedures are routinely shown on the media. But never an abortion!

Women are denied critical information on the risks of an abortion, including increased risk of Breast Cancer, Post Abortion Syndrome, the sale of body parts etc. The truth about abortion has been censored by the media, silenced by our courts, politicized by our politicians and even silenced in our churches and schools. Babies in the womb have no voice except yours and mine. We cannot remain silent any longer!

The so-called right to abortion has portrayed the GREATEST OF GIFTS

Dear Parishioners,
Our Holy Adoration on Thursdays is well attended. If you have a break during your day, please come from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm and pray to Jesus present in the Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. The exposition ends with Benediction at 5:30pm. We need another volunteer, from 12:30pm-1:30 pm. We also need substitutes that can assist us when someone is away or sick. Please consider signing-up for this ministry.
Next Saturday, February 3rd, we have our First Saturday Mass. February 3rd is also the feast day of St. Blaise, who is the patron saint of those suffering from any illnesses of the throat. We will do the special blessing of the throat during the Mass.
Please notice that our baptismal classes are now on the last Saturday of the month at 9 am. After consultation with Jacqueline McCain and Rebecca Cates, who help us with the presentation of our baptismal classes, we decided to start using our online faith formation material from www.formed.org. Families that are unable to attend our baptismal classes are welcome to watch them online for free. Use Our code 449536 to create your username and password. The online video is REBORN. YOU, YOUR CHILD AND THE HEART OF BAPTISM. There are some easy questions that need to be answered after each video. I found those videos very useful because they are created to reflect and understand some basic articles of our faith. There are many other faith formation videos and movies that you are welcome to watch with your family. Please consider making a video selection to watch during our coming Lenten season. Blessings to your family. Yours in Christ,

Fr. David

STEWARSHIP REFLECTION January 28, 2018.

During the Liturgy of the Word there are three scripture readings plus the Responsorial Psalm. Most often the First Reading comes from the Old Testament (although during Easter it tends to come from the Acts of the Apostles); the Second Reading is often from one of the New Testament letters.

Our First Reading today is from the Book of Deuteronomy. The Torah describes Moses as “the greatest prophet who ever was and will be” His influence is so great on Judaism that the religion is sometimes called Mosaism. At the beginning of this reading Moses says, “A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen.” Moses is speaking of Jesus, and it is such a clear declaration that we need to pay attention to this reading and all others as well.

Later in the reading Moses quotes God as saying, “I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him.” When we consider today’s Gospel you will understand that statement more clearly.

In the Second Reading from St. Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians St. Paul said that the most important thing in life was not romantic love, but pleasing God. From his view, he personally could please God better by remaining single. He is not condemning those who are married, and he is certainly not saying someone cannot serve God and pursue his or her vocation and calling if they are married.

Paul does make it clear that each of us called and each of us must define and pursue that calling. Whether that is a temporary or a permanent state, it should be seen as a special opportunity to serve God.

There are two distinct parts to today’s Gospel Reading from St. Mark. The first involves Jesus teaching clearly and with authority in the synagogue. We know from where His authority came and was based, but the people at that time were “astonished” because this occurred early on in His ministry. Perhaps a more telling moment is the second part of the Gospel when Jesus expels an evil spirit. In the time of Jesus there were many who offered the ability to expel evil spirits from someone, but they tended to use long and elaborate ceremonies, and they often were not successful. In all of Holy Scripture Jesus never failed to cast out a demon. He did not need to rely on ceremonies, because He had the authority of God, the same authority to which is referred earlier in this Gospel.

Jesus says quite simply, “Quiet! Come out of him!” That is enough and the reaction of the people is to be amazed and the beginning of having trust in the Lord, the same trust we need to have. God needs to be the authority in our own lives. We need to comprehend that and to adjust our lives to serve the Lord as good stewards and disciples...
