Dear parishioners,
As I mentioned to you last week, I just came from the World Youth Day in Panama. The bishops of Central America had asked that World Youth Day be held in this part of the world because many of the youngsters here would never have the possibility of traveling to other countries such as Europe and Brazil for World Youth Day. It would be too difficult for them to raise money for travel or acquire the necessary visas, and so the Holy Father consented to hold World Youth Day in Central America. Panama was chosen as the location because it is perhaps the country in Central America that is most suited, with its infrastructure and security, to host a World Youth Day. It was being held in January because Central America follows the academic year of South America and, in the Southern Hemisphere, this is their time of summer vacation. Of course, the timing made it difficult for Europeans and North Americans to attend. This is the 10th World Youth Day. Each has been a time of great blessings and a wonderful opportunity for young people to understand the universality and catholicity of our Church. Some studies have shown that, in the United States, over one-third of our seminarians have attended a World Youth Day. This just shows the impact that this experience has on young people.
The theme for this World Youth Day was “Be It Done To Me According To Thy Word.”, so the music, liturgy, celebrations and logo was prominently Marian, that is, it was centered on the Virgin Mary’s response to the archangel Gabriel. The presence of so many thousands of young fervent pilgrims changed the atmosphere and energy of the whole country: their joy was contagious to all people including no believers. The media, that at the beginning was very critical of this event, turned 180 degrees to cover all the events with positive reviews. I myself came renewed from this experience and the testimony of many young people that were touched by the love of God and the messages of the Holy Father. There was a crowd of about 700,000 people for the final Mass with the Holy Father. The music and the participation were, as always, very moving. As we concluded, the Holy Father made the announcement that the next World Youth Day will be held in Lisbon, Portugal, in 2022. We plan to do some fundraising to bring some of our youth to that next World Youth Day. Have a blessed week.
Fr. David

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection: Feb. 10, 2019
The First Reading from Isaiah describes a vision of the prophet in which angels surround the Lord. They proclaim, “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!” Our God invites us to such deep intimacy and friendship with Him that we sometimes can forget just how majestic and un-speakably holy He truly is.
As we contemplate the holiness of God, we come to a heightened awareness of what a privilege it is that He has chosen to include us in His work of spreading the Gospel to others through the grateful sharing of the gifts He has given us. We can make the words of the prophet Isaiah our own: “Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send” Who will go for us? Here I am, I said, send me!”
In the Gospel we find Jesus preaching to a crowd who is pressing in on Him to listen. In response, Jesus uses very ordinary means so that the crowd can hear Him. He simply gets into one of the nearby boats belonging to Simon so that His voice will better carry over the water. He finishes speaking and then tells Simon the fisherman to lower his nets for a catch. Simon is skeptical about this instruction but obeys. The result is a catch of fish beyond Simon’s wildest imaginings. Overwhelmed, he fell at Jesus’ knees, “for astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him.” But just as Jesus reassured Simon, “Be not afraid,” He reassures us, too. We need not fear a stewardship way of life.
