February 24, 2019
Dear parishioners,

Last week the building committee met to discuss the most urgent repairs/upgrades for the parish buildings. Among them: repairs to the roof in the church above the sanctuary area, it leaks when it rains. We would like to replace all the classroom windows with energy efficient double-pane windows and install programmable thermostats in each of the 9 furnace-zones areas in the office building. This year we will need to crack sealed our parking lot. Our irrigation system must be replaced or upgraded. The carpet in some areas, specially where food is consumed, will be replaced with ADA tiles or laminate flooring. There are numerous electrical upgrades necessary for our buildings. Our insurance company did an inspection and recommended some repairs, like adding more music jacks around the choir area, so long-loose cables will be eliminated. So far, I have not talked about any remodeling. I will like to finish first the most important repairs before moving on. We are working on two project now: replacement of the south parking lot light and the assembling of the new playground for the pre-school children.

Our Holy Cross cemetery is in need of other upgrades that I will share with you another time. Thank you for your support to our beloved St. Andrew’s parish.

Fr. David.

Sunday Readings for February 24, 2019
The first reading is taken from the Book of Sirach 27:4-7. The author was a wise and pious Jew who lived about 200 B.C. His purpose in writing was to encourage his fellow Jews to live devout lives following the Law of Moses and the pious traditions handed down to them. He treats of the individual, of the family and of the community, of their relations with one another and with God. In these verses he emphasizes how a man's speech shows up his character and his religious outlook.

The second reading is from the first Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians 15:54-58. St. Paul is speaking of the resurrection of the dead which the death and resurrection of Christ have won for us. In these verses St. Paul ends his discussion on death and resurrection with a hymn of triumph.

The Gospel is taken from St. Luke (6:39-45). We are all so prone to see the neighbor's faults and shortcomings and so inclined to cover up or deny our own. When our Lord spoke these words, his purpose and intention was not to condemn his hearers, the vast majority of whom were guilty of the defects he mentioned, but rather to open their minds and their hearts to their shortcomings so that they would change for the better and learn to live with their neighbor's faults, and do all in their power to correct their own. Let us turn this criticism on ourselves rather, and judge ourselves honestly and sincerely and in a short while we may, with God's grace helping us, notice a change in our Christian conduct. We shall not become saints in a week or a month but little by little, imperceptibly at first perhaps, we shall find ourselves becoming more Christian and therefore more charitable towards our neighbor and less critical of the faults of others. (Excerpted from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.)
