Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter!

We welcome the many persons visiting family and friends who are praying with us today. Our large numbers make clear that the celebration of Easter proclaims new life; Jesus’ rising attests to his victory over death.

Easter is a time for gratitude. I am grateful today for this beautiful Holy Week and Easter Liturgy. Thank you to all the volunteers who worked cleaning and decorating the church so that our Holy Week and Easter liturgies uplift the hearts and souls of the people who have come here for these celebrations. Thank you to all the musicians and cantors, as well as our choir director Barbara Pickett, for their time rehearsing and singing this magnificent Holy Week and Easter music.

As I have served here now for a year and a half, I’ve come to know many families who have been here for a long time and for whom St. Andrew’s is like a second home. You have celebrated children’s sacraments here and experienced very happy and joyous occasions here as well as sorrowful ones. Those parishioners with lots of years at St. Andrew’s have seen many challenges and changes, and you have supported the parish at all times. Thank you for your faith, generosity, and support.

For those who have become parishioners in recent years, we hope that you too will come to love St. Andrew’s as a second home.

Have a peace-filled and joyous Easter,
Fr. David
