In the pilgrimage of this life, hidden with Christ in God and free from enslavement to wealth, they aspire to those riches which remain forever and generously dedicate themselves wholly to the advancement of the kingdom of God and to the reform and improvement of the temporal order in a Christian spirit. Among the trials of this life they find strength in hope, convinced that "the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us" (Rom. 8:18). -Apostolicam actuositatem,

Sister Susan Madley, SVF. 50th Anniversary of Religious Profession

Last Saturday we celebrated the Golden Jubilee Anniversary of Sister Susan Madley, SVA, a religious sister of the Congregation of our Lady of Fidelity who is now retired after working for many years at Central Washington University. We want to thank all the people that made this celebration so memorable for Sister Susan, especially Geordy Watson, Joanne Cortese, Diane Dier, Judy Ross, Luc Tylor and all the volunteers who helped with the decorations in the hall and serving the food. Also our music director Barbara Pickett and Haley Rominger (cantor), Eva Herion (violin) for making the music at Mass so special.

Here is a short biography of sister Madley. Sister Susan was born and educate in England, she became a catholic at age sixteen. Having received her BA and MA from London University, she taught in Catholic High Schools and at the collegiate level. She entered religious life at age twenty-four. She joined the Congregation of Our Lady of Fidelity, founded in 1831 at La Délivrande (Normandy) by Henriette le Forestier d'Osseville. Their primary mission is the sheltering and education of orphan girls. In 1848 the sisters established an orphanage and school in Upper Norwood, London, the first catholic orphanage in England. Sister continued to teach throughout much of her formation. She came to the US in 1966 to teach at Easter Michigan University and to study at the University of Michigan for a doctorate in Psychology and Administration. Completing her degree she then became Principal of Fr. Gabriel Richard high school in Ann Arbor Michigan and later Principal of Gilmour Academy in Ohio. In 1990 Sister came to Central Washington University to teach Graduate students who were pursuing Principal Certification for public and private schools. Throughout Sister’s teaching and administrative years in the US, she has been committed and involved in Catholic Campus Ministry in Michigan, Ohio and the State of Washington. Retiring from CWU in 2002 she presently is a contributing member of St. Andrew’s Catholic Church in Ellensburg and the Yakima Diocese.

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY

Many blessings to all fathers as we celebrate Father’s Day. May the Lord help them to be good and loving role models to their children. May they receive the grace to be patient to handle stressful situations in a loving way.
