Saint of the Week: Saint Clare of Assisi
1193-1253, Feast Day is August 11.

Though 10 years younger than her townsman, Francis of Assisi, Clare was drawn to his radical message of serving God in abject poverty. Despite objections from her aristocratic family, who wanted her to marry, she gave up the world with Francis' help and founded the Second Order of St. Francis, known worldwide as the Poor Clares. For 40 years, she guided the San Damiano community, whose nuns included her sister and widowed mother. She served the other nuns who went out to beg, was often sick because of their hard life, and was proclaimed a saint just two years after she died.

Dear Friends, Catechists & Teachers,

As the new school year is fast approaching and religious education programs start in the Fall, I would like to every week uplift a weekly video or series that touches one of the 7 sacraments. This week we will be uplifting the video series "REBORN You, Your Child and the Heart of Baptism." The video series "REBORN" explores the deeply personal power of Baptism that brings light to the spiritual reality for parents and godparents and most importantly the child being baptized. REBORN provides a presentation on the foundation of the Church's teaching on Baptism, and a step-by-step explanation of the Rite itself, including its profound place in Scripture and Tradition. REBORN is a great series for Baptism prep and to also watch and learn more about the sacrament of Baptism.

FORMED is being offered to every Catholic in English and Spanish; a Catholic version of Netflix. FORMED is a streaming service with over 200 family appropriate movies along with sacramental preparation resources in Spanish and English. Parish code:449536

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern." – Pope Francis, 9/16/13

The Catholic bishops of the United States are pleased to offer once again to the Catholic faithful FORMING CONSCIENCES FOR FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP, their teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics. This statement represents the bishops' guidance for Catholics in the exercise of their rights and duties as participants in our democracy. The bishops encourage pastors, lay and religious faithful, and all people of good will to use this statement to help form their consciences; to teach those entrusted to their care; to contribute to civil and respectful public dialogue; and to shape political choices in the coming election in light of Catholic teaching. The statement lifts up our dual heritage as both faithful Catholics and American citizens with rights and duties as participants in the civil order.
