SAINTS OF THE WEEK
Saints Simon and Jude  Feast Day – October 28

Listed among the Twelve Apostles in the New Testament, Simon is “the Canaanite” to Matthew and Mark and “the Zealot” to Luke; Jude is “Thaddeus” to Matthew and Mark, “Judas of James” to Luke, and “Judas, not Iscario” to John. After Pentecost, they disappear. However, according to Eastern tradition, Simon died peacefully in Edessa, while Western tradition has him evangelizing in Egypt, then teaming up with Jude, who had been in Mesopotamia, on a mission to Persia, where they were martyred on the same day. Simon is the patron saint of tanners and lumberjacks; Jude is the patron of desperate causes, possibly because early Christians would pray to him, with a name evoking Judas Iscario, only when all else failed.

A SURVIVAL GUIDE TO MARRIAGE IN A PANDEMIC

A ONE NIGHT VIRTUAL RETREAT

GUIDED BY
CHRIS AND LINDA PADGETT
EMAIL: lindapadgett@mac.com
Back to school: Local churches once again are sponsoring weekend meals for kids in need of extra nutrition. St. Andrew’s volunteers will pack of 3 meals each for 24 Valley View Elementary K-5th graders weekly. You can help with food or cash donations. Always needed: individual oatmeal and dried fruit packets; applesauce, fruit, mac & cheese, and Chef Boyardee cups. Thank you St. Andrew’s for your ongoing support!

Remember to set your clocks back 1 hour next weekend, Saturday, October 31.

Fr. Robert Himes, a senior priest of the Diocese of Yakima and pastor emeritus of St. Henry’s Parish in Grand Coulee and Holy Angels Mission in Coulee City, moved to Highgate Senior Living community in Yakima. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1958 and has served in many parishes in the diocese and has also taught extensively in both public and private schools in central Washington. Please keep Fr. Himes and all our senior priests and those with health difficulties in your prayers.

Masses will be celebrated on Monday at 8AM, noon and 6PM (Spanish)

All Souls envelopes will also be available. These envelopes with names will be placed on the Altar during the month of November and remembered at all Masses.

Due to the pandemic, the Book of Deceased family and friend names will not be on display. However, please call 509-962-9819 or email standrewparish@yahoo.com and submit the names you would have written in the book. They will be transcribed for you.

Sally Gililand passed away this past week. The family will be planning a Mass in the upcoming weeks. Let us remember Sally and her family in our prayers.

Dear Friends, I want to uplift and link over the fine presentation Fr. Peter Steele recently gave in Wenatchee, “How to talk about real difficult stuff.” From my own emails I sometimes have the impression that some in the Church don’t like the roadmap the bishops lay out in their teaching. Fr. Peter Steele focuses on the question of how to have difficult conversations on topics, included political topics. He suggests that one challenge is that although we speak from the fullness of truth in the Catholic Church, often those with whom we talk are simply not convinced. Bishop Tyson+

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

For some reason, it is easier to genuflect in reverence to the presence of Christ in the tabernacle of a church, than to genuflect in reverence to the same presence of Christ in another person's soul. We wrongly believe that God divides himself, placing himself in one place in preference to another. It doesn't work that way. Love of God and love of neighbor are intimately and inseparably connected because the essence and spark of God's very presence is in all creation. God's presence is just as real in the one who is good, as in the one who is bad, and the one who is just, and the one who is unjust.

Our brains get in the way of truly contemplating the awesomeness of this truth. We like to separate things into boxes, the sheep from the goats and the deserving from the undeserving. But, with God there are no distinctions such as this. Our human classifications, subdivisions, and definitions hold no power or have any weight in God's eyes. Sadly, we relate to God and to each other as if they do.

We cannot be deaf to the world's pain. It is not about having, hording, accumulating, acquiring, securing, storing, protecting, owning, claiming, or any of the other human terms we use to distinguish mine from yours. We put so much power in these words and that power, even though we may not always realize it, can cause those words and the distinctions they carry to wound and hurt others. We have the whole order of things wrong, but we are so set on preserving this order that we are absolutely afraid to do it any other way. We go through hoops trying to convince ourselves why the perils of the person seeking a new place to call home are not our perils that we turn our back and justify closing our doors. It makes perfect sense to us. Yet, it makes no sense in terms of our faith. It doesn't square with any of the words found in Sacred Scripture or in any time-tested teaching of the church.

We have it all reversed. We know that we do because when Jesus speaks about such things and the words of the Old Testament prophets ring out again, we start to feel uncomfortable and anxious. What we do, directly or by omission, to one of the least of these little ones we do to God. It is quite possible that some of what we are doing personally, economically, politically, globally, and even religiously is doing more harm than good. Let's ponder that a bit.

He said to him, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” - Mt 22:37-39

SHARING THE GOSPEL
When you have a choice to make, think about what God wants. Make sure your choices are good and that they help other people. When you follow God’s example, you will be ready to love other people. With God’s help you can be gentle, forgiving and kind.

PRAYER
God, help me to love you and other people more and more every day.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK
As a family, help an elderly person in your neighborhood. Help them clean up their home or their yard.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2020 | 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Pray the Rosary!

The Great Weapon of the 21st Century

Sister Lucia, the eldest seer of Fatima, said that in these times the Blessed Mother has granted even greater power to the Rosary. She said, “there is no problem, however difficult, whether temporal or spiritual; no problem in the life of families, religious communities, or the life of nations, that cannot be solved by the Rosary.”

“The Rosary is the weapon for these times.”

St. Padre Pio
