Partnership-in-Faith Prayer

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessings and protection on the people of Sacred Heart Parish. We, your children at St. Patrick's, invoke your name on their behalf. We are grateful for all you have given us and in return we are mindful of those who have less than we do. Bless us all and keep us close to you. May the example of your Son, Jesus Christ, be the strength that will make us one in you. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Summer Humor II

Continuing our summer tradition of sharing humorous items that have come my way in recent months, I present three tidbits with the hope that you enjoy them as I did.

IF

If you can start the day without caffeine,
If you can resist complaining and boring people with your troubles,
If you can eat the same food every day and be grateful for it,
If you can understand when your loved ones are too busy to give you any time,
If you can take criticism and blame without resentment,
If you can conquer tension without medical help,
If you can relax without alcohol,
If you can sleep without the aid of drugs,
Then you are probably the family dog.

Domestic Doings

A well-to-do elderly man bought a new red Corvette convertible from a dealer, and took off down a Florida highway, pushing it to 90 mph.

Looking in his rear-view mirror, he saw a Florida State Trooper, siren blaring and lights flashing, pursuing him.

Pulling in behind him, the state trooper walked up to the Corvette. He looked at his watch, then said, "Sir, my shift ends in 30 minutes. Today is Friday. If you can give me a new reason for speeding, a reason I've never heard before – I'll let you go without a ticket."

The old man thought a moment, then said, "Three years ago, my wife ran off with a Florida State Trooper. I thought you were bringing her back."

"Have a good day, sir," the trooper replied, and drove away.

* * * * *

Rev. Harry Mahoney of Dedham, MA, recently attended a wedding where, at the reception, the emcee asked all the married men to get up and stand close to the person who had brought so much joy into their lives. "The bartender was almost crushed to death," Rev. Mahoney reported.

A man's car was stopped by a police officer around 2 a.m., and he was asked where he was going at that time of the night.

"I'm on my way to a lecture about the sins of alcohol abuse, as well as smoking and staying out late."

"Really? And who's giving that lecture at this time of night, your pastor?" the officer asked.

"No, my wife," the man replied.

Words of Pope Francis (from an Address to Students – and to All)

"I would like to reflect on two fundamental values: freedom and service. First of all: be free people! What do I mean? Perhaps it is thought that freedom means doing everything one likes, or seeing how far one can go by trying drunkenness and overcoming boredom. This is not freedom. Freedom means being able to think about what we do, being able to assess what is good and what is bad; these are types of conduct that lead to development; it means always opting for the good. Let us be free for goodness. And in this do not be afraid to go against the tide, even if it is not easy! Being free always to choose goodness is demanding, but it will make you into people with backbone who can face life, people with courage and patience.

The second word is service. In your schools you take part in various activities that accustom you to retreating into yourselves or into your own small world, but rather to being open to others, especially the poorest and neediest. They accustom you to working hard to improve the world in which we live. Be men and women with others and for others, true champions at the service of others.

In order to be magnanimous with inner freedom and a spirit of service, spiritual formation is necessary. Dear young people, love Jesus Christ more and more! Our life is a response to his call, and you will be happy and will build your life well if you can answer this call. May you feel the Lord's presence in your life. He is close to each one of you as a companion, as a friend who knows how to help and understand you, who encourages you in difficult times and never abandons you. In prayer, in conversation with him, and in reading the Bible, you will discover that he is truly close. You will also learn to read God's signs in your life. He always speaks to us, also through the events of our time and our daily life; it is up to us to listen to him."
