It's What We Do!

The Geico Insurance Co. runs a series of hilarious ads featuring the line, "It's what you do." (My favorite is Jane and Tarzan looking for the waterfall.)

The expression, "It's what you do" can be applied to us Catholics, both in St. Patrick's and elsewhere, as we celebrate the sacraments of initiation each spring during the Easter season. It starts with those who are baptized on Holy Saturday night at the Easter Vigil. In the weeks that follow, children receive the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist for the first time (First Holy Communion) and other older children receive the sacrament of Confirmation.

As we turn the calendar into May, all of this is in the midst of happening in our parish. After all, it's what we do! It started on Saturday, April 16th, when the second graders from St. Patrick's School received First Communion. Yesterday morning, the first group of our Second Grade CCD children made their First Communion. Next Saturday, May 7th, the second group of CCD children will receive First Communion. Finally, on this coming Friday, May 6th, Bishop Peter Byrne will come to St. Patrick's to administer Confirmation to eighth graders from both the School and CCD programs. There will be Confirmation Masses at 2pm and 5pm on that day. Congratulations to all the children and their families who are receiving their sacraments of initiation during this Easter season. And many thanks to the catechists who have prepared them so well. There is an insert attached to this bulletin with all their names.

These celebrations, beautiful and special as they are, all fit into a larger context. We Catholics are a sacramental people. Jesus has left us special remembrances of Himself which turn out to be encounters with the Risen Lord. The Lord manages to be with us at the key moments of our lives (and some very ordinary ones as well). He is with us as newborns, and we call it Baptism. He is with us at our coming of age, and we call it Confirmation. He is with us in our need for forgiveness, and we call it Reconciliation. He is with us in our need for healing and we call it the Sacrament of the Sick. He is with us as we give ourselves to a soul-mate and we call it Matrimony. He is with the Church in our need for shepherding and we call it Holy Orders. Finally, He is with us every day in our need for nourishment and we call it Holy Eucharist. These are our seven encounters with Jesus, the great Sacrament of God. We call these encounters sacraments also.

So, whether you are receiving the Holy Eucharist for the first time or the 5,000th time this month, it is indeed a comforting thought to know that Jesus walks with us on our pilgrimage through life. We don't just have a God who is "up there, out there" and totally removed from our experience. No, we have a God who is present to us and who sustains us in all we do.

Words of Pope Francis

BECOMING MORE MATURE CHRISTIANS

"When we participate in holy Mass and are nourished by the body of Christ, the presence of Jesus and of the Holy Spirit acts in us, shaping our hearts, communicating an interior disposition that translates into conduct according to the gospel. Above all, docility to the Word of God, then fraternity amongst ourselves, the courage of Christian witness, creative charity, the capacity to give hope to the disheartened, to welcome the excluded. In this way the Eucharist fosters a mature Christian lifestyle. The love of Christ, welcomes with an open heart, changes us, transforms us, renders us capable of loving not according to a limited human measure but according to God's measure. And what is God's measure? Without measure!"

Spiritual Adoption—Month 5

Our babies weigh over one pound. Their mothers can feel them moving now. Before, they were too small to be felt. We are midway through the pregnancy now. Our prayers have helped our babies' mothers continue with their pregnancies and seek the help they need.
