Partner-in-Faith Prayer

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessings and protection on the people of Sacred Heart Parish. We, your children at St. Patrick's, invoke your name on their behalf. We are grateful for all you have given us and in return we are mindful of those who have less than we do. Bless us all and keep us close to you. May strength that will make us one in you. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Ordinary Time

Wasted time is not a prized commodity in American society. We are a people ruled by the clock. Time is money because time is to be filled with purposeful controlled activity which is productive of things which can be sold. We are convinced that we must be in control of time. The last thing the productive American would want to do is waste time playing around with realities that do not produce a saleable commodity.

But the Creator of heaven and earth is described by the scriptures as the original and best of players. Creative activity is playful, and creative people do not feel that what they do is a job. Creative people also have a sense that their creativity and all that they fashion in the creative spirit are gifts they have received. The Christian can speak of this and the contemplative vision which sees all reality as gift or grace. Our thankful response we call worship or eucharist.

We cannot speak of Ordinary Time without speaking of Sunday. The every seven-day celebration of the Lord's Day is the basic structure upon which the Church Year is built. The great liturgical seasons of Advent-Christmas and Lent-Easter are more expansive celebrations of particular aspects of the one paschal mystery which we celebrate every Lord's Day. These special seasons focus our attention upon critical dimensions on one mystery, a mystery so overwhelming that we are compelled to separate out its various elements for particular attention. These seasons in no way minimize the critical importance of the Sunday celebration throughout the rest of the year. Ordinary Time is not very ordinary at all. Ordinary Time, the celebration of Sunday, is the identifying mark of the Christian community which comes together, remembering that on this first day of the week the Lord of Life was raised up and creation came at last to completion. Sunday as a day of play and worship is a sacrament of redeemed time. How we live Sunday proclaims to the world what we believe about redeemed time now and forever.

What happens in our Churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday, like all sacraments, is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the kingdom. This is not ordinary at all. This is the fabric of Christian living.

When I was in Saint Catharine's Grammar School, the good Sisters of St. Francis of Hastings-on-Hudson taught us that every Friday was a small Good Friday and every Sunday was a small Easter. That statement was used to help explain the many traditions many Catholics used to do on these days. On Fridays the Sorrowful Mysteries would be prayed and abstinence was required on every Friday throughout the year. Post Vatican II taught that outside of Lent, works of charity could replace the abstinence. Time Magazine did not report it that way and so many people, some priests and religious included, just threw out the abstinence without the inclusion of the extra charity. Back in the day my family sat down for supper together every night but if you had a good reason you could be excused. That was not the case on Sunday. The Sunday meal (2:00pm for Italians or 6:00pm for Irish,) was sacrosanct. No excuses were permitted. If we were dating then our girlfriends could join us. On many Sundays, many of my friends and I, ended up having two full meals. Mass and family is how we kept holy the sabbath (3rd Commandment,) the Lord's Day, the little Easter.

WORDS OF INSPIRATION:

We Are Family

Even though we say that the family is the strongest unit in our culture, it seems that most families go long periods of time with some members in some state of estrangement from other members of the family. Childhood resentments fester into adulthood. Never-addressed envies poison holidays and, especially, the handling of estates after the death of parents. What a treasure it is, then, to know that we are considered the mother and sisters and brothers of Jesus himself. Do you feel isolated from your family of origin? Jesus says that if you strive to do the will of God you are his intimate family member. In that case, engage with him and ask him to heal your family divisions. He has already called you his own.

*Be renewed
every day*

Father's Day Cards are available at the Church entrance for the next few weeks. Give your Father a spiritual gift by having him remembered in all masses celebrated in our parish on Father's Day.

About Coffee Sunday...

Our final Coffee Hour for the season held outside was a great success! We received wonderful feedback about the idea of bringing our parish community together to meet each other and enjoy a morning treat right outside of our church entrance. We will begin again with our monthly Coffee Hour in September and want to thank Colleen Gelfand for her generous efforts in making this a viable community effort for our parish. A toast of morning coffee to her wonderful spirit!

Women's Faith Sharing Group will meet Tuesday, June 12th from 6:30 to 8pm in the Cenacle. Questions? Contact Mary Mullaney (mary.a.mullaney@gmail.com), Kathy Mignone (nevinkm@gmail.com), or Helen Luciano (hzluciano@gmail.com). Please join us!

The next Centering Prayer Meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 12, at 7:30pm in the Church Meeting Room. All are welcome!

If you have any questions, please contact us at centeringprayer1@gmail.com.

Eucharistic Adoration at the Cenacle:

In previous years, Eucharistic Adoration at the Cenacle would end with the school year and then start up again in the Fall. Now that we have a special cupboard for the exposition of the Host, we can keep the Cenacle Chapel open for Eucharistic Adoration throughout the year during regular parish office hours (9am to 4pm, Monday through Friday.) If you would like to schedule a time for Eucharistic Adoration, please contact the parish office 914-234-3344. This is a wonderful opportunity to spend quality time with the Lord.

To register for next year's Religious Education Classes please contact the RE Office at 234-3775 or goodnews2@verizon.net. Students begin in 1st grade and continue through 8th grade for Confirmation. Classes are offered on either Tuesday afternoon/evening or Sunday mornings. Financial assistance is offered if needed. Some classes are full so please register ASAP.

Not on FORMED yet? Go to seas.formed.org. Click on Register, then enter your name, email address and desired password. You are now registered to enjoy the free parish subscription which gives you 24/7 access to over 300 quality Catholic on line programs, 99+ movies, 101+ audios, & 98+ Ebooks. Friday was the Solemnity of The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Study Divine Mercy, Session 2: Behold, This Heart, or Consoling the Heart of Jesus. On the 13th Watch: Finding Saint Anthony or Saint Anthony: The Miracle Worker of Padua. Listen to: St. Anthony of Padua.

The Trustees of St. Patrick's Cathedral will be celebrating Gate of Heaven Cemetery's 100th Anniversary at 10 West Stevens Avenue in Hawthorne, NY with an Open House on Saturday, June 9th from 1pm to 4pm and again on Sunday, June 10th from 10am to 3pm. Pastries and refreshments will be served. All are welcome for free information and tours. Special discounts on certain locations will be offered during open house hours only.
