FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

This Thursday we pause as a nation and as a people to celebrate Thanksgiving Day. It is a uniquely American holiday when we gather with family and friends to express our gratitude to God for all the blessings that we enjoy. Like many of the days we celebrate, Thanksgiving often becomes a day when we forget that its focus is God. Although we have problems and division in our country, we also know that we are truly blessed in so many ways. We often take things for granted. Giving thanks should never simply be something we reserve for one day out of the year, but should be part of our ongoing relationship with God.

As Catholics we celebrate the Eucharist each week and for some every day. The very word Eucharist comes from the Greek word meaning, "Thanksgiving." Each time we celebrate the Eucharist we are giving thanks. We thank God for our life, our health, our blessings and of course, our faith. Let us also thank God for all those whom He has placed in our life - our family and our friends and neighbors. Let us thank God for those with whom we shared the Thanksgivings of our past and for those with whom we will share our day with this week.

I extend my wishes to all of our parishioners and their families a truly wonderful Thanksgiving!!
